[THIRD SESSION.]

SENATE: Memorial for Removal of Disabilities—Proposed Act Requiring Sales of Loans, Bonds and Gold by Government to be Made by Inviting Public Competition—Bill from Finance Committee Legalizing Gold Contracts, &c.—Personal Explanations Concerning Railroad Jobs—The Copper Tariff Bill Considered. HOUSE: Bill Proposing the Issue of One Thousand Millions of Dollars of Coupons or Registered Bonds in Payment or Exchange for Outstanding Bonds or Notes—Resolution Adopted against Further Subsidies to Railroad or Other Corporations—Naval Appropriation Bill Passed—Resolution of Inquiry Concerning National Banks—The Wells, Fargo & Co. Mail Contracts, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, January 18, 1869.

SENATE.

A memorial was presented praying that political disability be removed from all Superintendents of Insane Institutions at the South. Referred.

Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, presented a petition from the merchants of New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago for the enactment of a law reading that "Hereafter all purchase or sales of the loans and bonds of the United States, and on account of the United States, shall be made by inviting public competition and thoroughly advertising for proposals, and that all sales of gold for account of the United States shall be made by an official of the Treasury Department, at a time and place duly advertised." Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Finance Committee, reported the following bill:

Be it enacted, &c, That any contract hereafter made, specifically payable in coin, shall be legal and valid, and may be enforced according to its terms, anything in the several acts relating to United States notes to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, that this section shall not apply to contracts for borrowing currency, or to the renewal or extension of any indebtedness under a contract already entered into, unless such contract originally required payment in coin.

SEC. 2. That there is hereby appropriated out of the duties levied from imported goods the sum of $140,000,000 annually, which sum during each fiscal year shall be applied to the payment of interest and to the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and such reduction shall be in lieu of the sinking fund provided by the fifth section of an act entitled an act to authorize the issue of United States notes and for the redemption and funding thereof, and for funding the floating debt of the United States, approved February 25, 1862.

SEC. 3. That the holder of any lawful money of the United States to the amount of fifty dollars, or any multiple of fifty dollars, may convert the same into bonds for an equal amount as herein provided, under such regulations and rules as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue to such holder coupons or registered bonds of the United States, in such form and of such denomination, not less than fifty dollars, as he may prescribe, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the United States after ten years and payable in coin in forty years, and bearing an annual interest of five per cent. payable semi-annually in coin, which said bonds shall be exempt from taxation in any form by or under State or municipal authority, and the same and the interest thereon, the income therefrom, shall be exempt from payment of all taxes or duties to the United States, other than such income tax as may be assessed upon other incomes.

SEC. 4. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required to issue gold notes of the United States, not bearing interest, payable to bearer on demand in coin at the Treasury of the United States, in such form and of such denomination, not less than ten dollars, as he may prescribe, and such gold notes shall be received for all taxes, duties or debts payable to the United States, and the Secretary of the Treasury is also authorized, at his discretion, to apply an amount of such coin notes, not exceeding the amounts of United State notes surrendered for conversion into bonds under preceding section of this act, to the purchase in open market and in the city of New York of any part of the securities of the United States bearing six per cent. interest, and thereupon the Secretary of the Treasury shall cancel an amount of United States notes equal to the securities so purchased and said coin liabilities of the United States, at the option of the creditors; provided, however, that the aggregate of coin notes issued under this act, and the outstanding gold certificates of deposit, shall not exceed the coin and bullion in the Treasury of the United States, and such coin notes shall be paid according to their terms, and may be re-issued from time to time as the exigencies of the public service shall require.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That any banking association, now organized or that may hereafter organize under the act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for their circulation and the redemption thereof, approved January 3, 1866, is hereby authorized, without respect to the limitation of $300,000,000 of circulating notes prescribed by the 22d section of said act, to issue and circulate in notes as money, not bearing interest and payable on demand in coin, and such coin shall be obtained by the mode provided in said act as to other circulating notes, and shall be paid on demand in coin instead of United States notes, and only be issued to the amount of sixty-five per cent of the bonds of the United States deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as security for the redemption of said coin notes; no bank shall receive less than $50,000 of such coin notes and such bonds, and the said coin notes shall be subject in all other respects to the limitations, restrictions and provisions of such act.

Mr. WILLIAMS gave notice he wished to offer the following amendment, to be printed with the bill: To amend section three by adding thereto the following words: "Provided, that not to exceed two millions lawful money shall be converted into bonds, as herein provided, in any one month." Strike out in section fourth the words, "at his discretion," and insert in place thereof the words, "and required," and also strike out in same section the words, "not exceeding" and insert instead thereof the words "equal to."

The following amendments were proposed to be offered by Mr. CATTELL:

Add at end of section the following: "And any holder of any of the bonds provided for in this act may present the same to the Treasury of the United States and demand lawful money of the United States for the principal and accruing interest thereon, and the Treasurer shall redeem the same in lawful money of the United States, unless the amount of the United States notes then outstanding shall be equal to $350,000,000, and such bonds shall not be redeemable after the United States have resumed the payment of coin for their notes."

Mr. HARLAN called the attention of the Senate to the letter of the correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, General Boynton, which had been copied and commented on by the New York Tribune, and was personal to himself, and he thought to some other Senators.

The letter and the Tribune editorial were read.

Mr. HARLAN then denounced the letter as exhibiting such a degree of carelessness, or ignorance, or something worse, as would, in his judgment, unfit the author to be a correspondent of any respectable journal. Mr. Harlan made a long explanation of the facts in each transaction with which he was accused of wrong doing, and stated he never had and never expected to have any personal interest whatever in these transactions.

Mr. POMEROY also stated the statements affecting himself were incorrect in regard to material facts. The only way in which he had become interested in railroads in his own State was by the Legislature having put his name into the charters of certain roads as one of the temporary corporators, and when capitalists were found to build the roads he and the other corporators had always transferred the franchises without compensation.

Mr. CONNESS commented briefly on the letter of Gen. Boynton and the statement of Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, in the House, in regard to the vast quantities of public lands given away to railroad corporations, which he said was made in ignorance of the facts. Mr. Conness also read in the New York Herald that he (Conness) had no less than five jobs before the Senate, before seeing which he had congratulated himself that his name and influence were not in any way connected with jobs.

Mr. GRIMES said the charge against his colleague was a trumped up affair, with no foundation in fact.

Mr. CONKLING, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to amend the act prescribing the mode of obtaining evidence in cases of contested elections, which passed.

Mr. TRUMBULL introduced a bill to amend the judicial system of the United States, which was ordered to be printed and referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. SHERMAN reported back from the Finance Committee the specie payment bill, introduced by Senator Morton, and asked that the Committee be discharged from its further consideration, because so much of it as they approved had been considered in the general bill reported.

Mr. MORRILL, Vt., from Committee on Commerce, reported back the memorial of the New York and London Telegraph Company, with a bill to authorize them to land the cables on the shores of the United States, and recommended its passage.

Mr. MORTON introduced a bill to punish the collection of taxes on passengers. It provides that it shall be unlawful for any officer of a railroad corporation to pay to any State government or its agents any tax or sum of money for the transportation of passengers through its territories, and that any person violating this law shall pay a fine of not more than $5,000 and not less than $1,000. The second section makes it unlawful for any State government or its agent to collect such tax, and imposes a penalty of $2,000 for a violation. The third section gives the United States Courts jurisdiction in the matter. The bill was referred.

Mr. SUMNER reported a bill in regard to the discharge of poor convicts.

Mr. DRAKE introduced a bill to regulate the construction of a bridge over the Missouri river. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Mr. KELLOGG introduced a bill to guarantee the payment of certain bonds to be issued under the authority of the Governments of Louisiana and Arkansas, for repairing levees on the Mississippi river. Referred.

Mr. NORTON introduced a bill making a grant of land to the State of Minnesota, to aid in improving the navigation of the Mississippi river immediately above the Falls of St. Anthony. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. CHANDLER, took up the bill to regulate the duty on copper, etc., which was read as reported from the Committee.

Mr. ANTHONY moved an amendment, by adding "on copper in rolled plates, called brazier's copper, sheets, rods, pipes and copper bottoms, eyelets and all manufactures of copper, of which copper shall be a component of the chief value, and not otherwise herein provided for, 45 per centum ad valorem." Adopted.

Mr. MORRILL, Vt., moved to amend by inserting after the word "ores" in the ninth line the words "containing sulphur," and in line ten, after the the word "therein," the words "and on all copper imported in the form of ores not containing sulphur, two cents on each pound of fine copper contained therein."

After discussion, during which Mr. FERRY supported the amendment, and Mr. CHANDLER made a sharp reply, that if Connecticut continued to say to the northwest "stop your mines," the answer would be "stop your factories," the amendment was rejected—yeas 20, nays 27, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED.

By Mr. POLAND: Proposing the issue of coupons or registered bonds to the amount of one thousand millions of dollars in coin, after thirty and fifty years respectively, the thirty year bonds to bear interest at four and one-half per cent. in coin, and the fifty year bonds to bear interest at four per cent., the bonds to be exempt from national, State and municipal taxes, except the income tax, and to be exclusively used in payment of or exchange for outstanding bonds, or notes that have fallen due or bear interest at higher rates; the Secretary of the Treasury is to return and cancel all United States notes now outstanding, by their conversion into such bonds; circulating notes are to be issued to the National banks as fast as the U. S. notes are cancelled, until the amount of U. S. notes outstanding shall be reduced to one hundred million dollars; the National banks are hereafter to make their deposits for the security of their circulation in the bonds provided in the act.

By Mr. POLAND: Allowing defendants in criminal cases to testify. Referred to Committee on Revision of Laws.

By Mr. BUTLER, Mass.: Relating to church property in the lately rebellious States. Referred to Committee on Reconstruction. It proposes that where church property has been given to Africans, the trustees thereof shall be elected by the congregation.

By Mr. BANKS: To prevent the alienation to foreigners of grants of privileges from the United States. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

By Mr. VAN HORN, N. Y., for his colleague, Mr. Stewart: For the construction of lines of telegraph between Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, under the direction of the Postoffice Department. Referred to the Postoffice Committee.

By Mr. BARNES: To prevent loaning money on United States legal tender notes as collateral security. Referred to the Committee on Banking.

Also, to prohibit banks of issue from paying interest on deposits, except on some specified time, not less than thirty days. Referred to same Committee.

By Mr. BROOKS: To exempt manufacturers of printed newspapers from tax, the same as manufacturers of other prints. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

By Mr. COLLIS: For the appointment of a select Committee on Ku-Klux outrages in Alabama. Referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

By Mr. KELLOGG: Relative to the sale of gold and bonds. Referred to Committee on Banking.

By Mr. BINGHAM: To admit the State of Missisaippi to representation in Congress. Referred to Committee on Reconstruction. It provides for the admission of Mississippi whenever its Legislature shall have ratified the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and declares null and void the disability imposed by the third section of article seventh of the Constitution of Mississippi.

By Mr. GARFIELD: Providing that no commissions as Brigadier General shall be issued until the number of Brigadiers is reduced below eight, and fixing eight as the number of Brigadier Generals after that time. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

By Mr. SCHENCK: To distribute the number and rank of Government employes among the several States and Territories. Referred to the Committee on Public Buildings.

By Mr. JULIAN: To close the land system in certain States. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

By Mr. BOLES: To aid the construction of the Arkansas and Pacific Railroad. Referred to Committee on Pacific Railroad.

By Mr. WILSON: Making appropriations for certain harbors in Michigan. Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

By Mr. WILSON, Iowa: To amend the Judiciary system of the United States. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. CLARK, Kansas: Authorizing the appointment of a Commissioner for the settlement of claims of citizens of Kansas. Referred to Committee on Claims.

By Mr. CAVANAUGH: To authorize the construction and maintenance of a bridge across the Missouri river, at the Three Forks, Montana Territory. Referred to Committee on Roads and Canals.

By Mr. ARNELL: To provide for the representation of the District of Columbia in Congress. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. LAWRENCE, Ohio: Providing that after March 4th, 1869, no Senator or Representative in Congress shall be entitled to receive or transmit by mail any letter or mail matter free of postage. Referred to Postoffice Committee.

By Mr. JONES, Kentucky: For co-operation of the United States Coast Survey in the geological surveys instituted by the several States. Referred to Committee on Mines and Mining.

By Mr. BARNES: To compel the National banks to make statements six times a year. Referred to the Committee on Banking.

Mr. COBURN, on behalf of Mr. Ela, offered a resolution directing the Committee on Public Expenditures to inquire into and report the facts and circumstances concerning the contract with Wells, Fargo & Co. for carrying United States mails between the termini of the Pacific Railroad. Adopted.

Mr. HOLMAN offered the following:

Resolved, That in the present condition of the national finances no further subsidies ought to be given by Congress, either in bonds or money, to railroad or other corporations, or to promote local enterprises; but the whole resources of the country ought to be applied to the pressing necessities of the public service in such a manner as will relieve the people from the burdens of taxation.

Resolved, That the grants of public lands to corporations ought to be discontinued and the whole of such lands ought to be held as a sacred trust to secure homesteads to actual settlers, and for no other purpose whatever.

He moved the previous question on the adoption of the resolutions.

The previous question was seconded.

Mr. WINDOM moved to lay the resolutions on the table—negatived, only thirty-four affirmative votes.

Mr. SCOFIELD demanded a separate vote on the resolutions.

The first resolution was adopted—yeas 90, nays 67, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Bailey, Baker, Baldwin, Beaman, Beatty, Benton, Bingham, Blair, Bontwell, Boyden, Broomall, Brooks, Buckland, Burr, Butler, (Mass.,) Cary, Chandler, Clark, (Ohio,) Cooke, Cornell, Cullom, Delano, Dockery, Ela, Farnsworth, Ferris, Ferry, Field, Getz, Grover, Harding, Hawkins, Heaton, Hill, Holman, Hubbard, (W. Va.,) Jenckes, Johnson, Jones, (N. C.,) Jones, (Ky.,) Judd, Julian, Kelsey, Kerr, Kitchen, Knott, Koontz, Lash, Lawrence, (Pa.,) Lawrence, (Ohio,) McCarthy, McKee, Mercur, Miller, Moore, Mungen, Niblack, Nicholson, Paine, Pike, Phelps, Pile, Plants, Price, Randall, Ross, Scofield, Shanks, Shellabarger, Sitgreaves, Spalding, Stone, Sypher, Taber, Taylor, Trowbridge, Upson, Van Auken, Van Wyck, Van Trump, Ward, Washburne, (Ill.,) Washburne, (Ind.,) Welker, Williams, (Ind.,) Wilson, (Ohio,) Wilson, (Iowa,) Wood and Young.—90.

Nays—Messrs. Anderson, Arnell, Ashley, (Nev.,) Axtell, Banks, Barnes, Beck, Benjamin, Boles, Buckley, Butler, (Tenn.,) Collis, Churchill, Clark, (Kansas,) Clift, Cobb, Coburn, Corley, Dewees, Dodge, Driggs, Elliott, (Ark.,) Garfield, Gollady, Goss, Gove, Gravelly, Houghey, Higbee, Hopkins, Humphrey, Ingersoll, Kelly, Kellogg, Lincoln, Mallory, Maynard, M'Cormick, Morrill, Mullins, Myers, Newcomb, Newsham, Norris, O'Neill, Perham, Peters, Pierce, Prince, Raum, Roots, Sawyer, Schenck, Smith, Starkweather, Stokes, Stover, Tafe, Thomas, Tift, Trimble, (Ky.,) Twitchell, Van Earman, Van Horn, (Ky.,) Washburne, (Mass.,) Whittemore and Windom.—67.

The question recurred on the second resolution.

Mr. JULIAN desired to offer a substitute, that no public lands shall be given to aid in the construction of railroads, except on condition of actual settlement, in quantities not greater than one hundred and sixty acres to one purchaser for a fixed tax on the full price.

Mr. HOLMAN declined to let it be offered.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Indiana, moved to lay the resolution on the table, because it would interfere with the soldiers' bounty bill.

The resolution was laid on the table—yeas 110, nays 54.

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Anderson, Arnell, Ashley, (Nev.), Axtell, Banks, Beaman, Breck, Benjamin, Bingham, Blair, Boles, Buckland, Buckley, Butler, (Tenn.), Cake, Collis, Churchill, Clift, Cobb, Coburn, Cook, Corley, Covode, Cullom, Delano, Deweez, Dockeny, Dodge, Driggs, Eggleston, Eliot, Elliott, Ferris, Ferry, French, Garfield, Golladay, Goss, Gove, Graveley, Haugney, Heaton, Hooper, Hopkins, Hotchkiss, Hubbard, (Iowa), Hunter, Ingersoll, Jenckes, Johnson, Jones, (N. C.), Judd, Julian, Kelly, Kellogg, Knott, Lash, Lincoln, (N. Y.), Mallory, Marvin, McKee, Mercur, Miller, Morrill, Mullens, Myers, Newcomb, Newsham, Norris, O'Neill, Orth, Perham, Peters, Pettis, Phelps, Price, Pile, Poland, Pierce, Prince, Raum, Roots, Sawyer, Schenck, Shanks, Smith Starkweather, Stokes, Taber, Tafe, Tift, Trimble, (Ky.), Trimble, (Tenn.), Trowbridge, Twitchell, Van Earnam, Van Horn, (N. Y.), Van Wyck, Washburne, (Ind.), Wahburne, (Ills.), Wilkes, Whittemore, Williams, (Pa.), Williams, (Ind.), Wilson, (Iowa), Windom—110.

Nays—Messrs. Bailey, Baker, Baldwin, Barnes, Boutwell, Beatty, Benton, Burr, Butler, (Mass.,) Carey, Chandler, Clarke, (Ohio,) Clarke, (Kansas,) Ela, Farnsworth, Fields, Getz, Grover, Hardin, Hawkins, Holman, Hubbard, (West Va.,) Jones, (Ky.,) Kelsey, Kerr, Koontz, Lawrence, (Pa.,) Marshall, McCarthy, McCormick, Moore, Mungen, Niblack, Paine, Pike, Plants, Randall, Ross, Schofield, Shellaberger, Sitgreaves, Spalding, Stevens, Stone, Sypher, Taylor, Thomas, Upson, Vanauken, Van Trump, Ward, Wilson, (Ohio,) Wood and Young—54.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, said if he had been in the hall at the time his name was called, he would have voted No, emphatically.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, moved to suspend the rules that he might offer as an amendment to the Naval Appropriation bill the sections relating to the Marine Corps, which had been ruled out as not in order.

The rules were not suspended—70 to 42, not two-thirds.

The amendments reported from the Committee on Ways and Means to the Naval Appropriation bill were agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, from the Committee on Appropriations, offered a resolution directing the Comptroller of Currency to inform the House whether any, and what, National Banks had been allowed to exchange gold bearing interest bonds for currency bonds issued to the Pacific Railroad, and directing that such exchange shall cease till the further action of the House. Also directing the Comptroller of Currency to inform the House what banks had relinquished their charters as National Banks and were doing business under State charters, still retaining the National Bank circulation, with the amount of such circulation outstanding. Also, whether any bank had been instructed that the twenty-ninth section of the banking act, limiting the amount of liability of any person in the association to one-tenth of its capital, does not apply to the endorsement or collateral liabilities or checks certified as good.

During the discussion which followed, Mr. DELANO said he believed this an unjust attack on the Comptroller of the Currency.

Mr. BUTLER retorted he had made no such attack, and then said, in his judgment the Treasurer and Comptroller were both paid and pliant servants of the banks, and were doing the business of the banks. After denial he withdrew the portion of the resolution directing the cessation of the exchange, and it was then adopted.

Mr. SCHOFIELD, from Committee on Appropriations, offered a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Treasury to withhold all payments of money to W. W. Corcoran for the use of lands and buildings in the District of Columbia, supposed to belong to him and taken possession of by the War Department during the rebellion for National purposes, until further action of Congress.

Mr. BOUTWELL, from the Committee on Reconstruction, reported back the Senate joint resolution respecting the provisional governments of Virginia and Texas. The joint resolution provides that the persons now holding civil offices in the provisional governments of Virginia and Texas who cannot take the oath prescribed by the act of July 2d, 1862, the test oath, shall, on the passage of this resolution, be removed therefrom, and makes it the duty of the District Commander to fill the vacancies so created by the appointment of persons who can take the oath.

The Committee recommended an amendment, that the provisions of the act shall not apply to persons who, by reason of the removal of their disabilities, as provided in the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution, shall have been qualified for any office, and that the act shall not take effect until thirty days from its passage.

The amendment was agreed to, and the resolution passed.

Mr. BOUTWELL gave notice he would, next Saturday, call up the proposed Constitutional amendment and bill in relation to suffrage, and try to bring them to a vote the following Tuesday.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Indian appropriation bill, which was made the special order for Monday next.

The House at three o'clock went into Committee of the Whole on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, Mr. Schenck in the chair, and was addressed by Mr. WOOD as to the powers of Congress on the many subjects now being comprehended within its legislation.

The Committee then proceeded to consider the bill by sections for amendment, and at half past four rose, when

Mr. FARNSWORTH obtained leave to make a personal explanation in reference to newspaper insinuations against him on the subject of proposed investigations into the Wells, Fargo & Co. contracts, in the course of which he asked his colleague (Mr. Washburne,) if he had written or dictated certain telegrams which appeared in the Chicago Tribune and Post, stating that Mr. Farnsworth objected to its consideration and that the whole affair had an ugly look.

Mr. WASHBURNE said his colleague ought to know him better than to ask such a question. He made no reflection on him of any kind.

Mr. FARNSWORTH accepted the disclaimer, and said he was opposed to stopping the pay of the contractors, but in favor of an investigation. In fact it was at his instance the resolution of inquiry was offered by his colleague (Mr. Coburn) today and adopted by the House.

Mr. WASHBURNE said he did not intend to take part in the quarrel between his colleague and editors. Each could take care of himself.

After some further discussion the subject was permitted to drop, and the House, at five o'clock, adjourned.

Nominations — The President's Answer to the Senate's Resolution of Inquiry Upon What Authority He Based His Amnesty Proclamation — The Virginia Committee Call on Gen. Grant.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, January 18, 1869.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President nominated to the Senate to-day John H. Gadsen, Secretary of Legation to Mexico vice Mr. Plumb; Wm. Dixon, Associate Justice for Montana; R. H. Hunt, Collector of Internal Revenue, Sixth District, Missouri; A. J. Brooks, Collector of Internal Revenue, Twenty-First District, Penna.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

The President transmitted the following to-day to the Senate of the United States:

The resolution adopted on the 5th inst., requesting the President to transmit to the Senate a copy of any proclamation of amnesty made by him since the last adjournment of Congress, and also to communicate to the Senate by what authority of law it was made, has been received. I accordingly transmit herewith a copy of a proclamation dated the 25th day of December last. The authority of law by which it was made is set forth in the proclamation itself, which expressly affirms that it was issued by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution, and in the name of the sovereign people of the United States, and proclaims and declares, unconditionally and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion a full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States, or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with the restoration of all their rights, privileges and immunities under the Constitution and laws which have been made in persuance thereof. The Federal Constitution, as understood to be and is regarded by the second section of article second of that instrument, provides that the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardon for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment. The proclamation of the 25th ult. is in strict accordance with the judicial exposition of the authority thus conferred upon the executive, and, as will be seen by reference to the accompanying papers, is in conformity with the precedent established by Washington in 1795, and followed by Adams in 1800, Madison in 1815, and Lincoln in 1863, and by the present Executive in 1865, '67 and '68.

[Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.

Washington, D. C., January 18, 1869.

The papers accompanying the President's answer are as follows:

First—The proclamation of Gen. Washington, dated July 10, 1795, granting to citizens who had been engaged in insurrection and in resisting the collection of revenue on distilled spirits and stills in the western counties of Pennsylvania, excepting certain classes described in the proclamation, a general pardon of all treasons and other indictable offenses.

Second—The proclamation of John Adams, dated the 21st of May, 1800, granting full pardon to all and every person, including some persons excepted in Washington's proclamation, engaged in the said insurrection, whereby remedying and releasing unto all such persons all pains and penalties incurred or supposed to be incurred for or on account of the premises.

Third—The proclamation of James Madison, dated February 16, 1815, concerning certain foreigners flying from the danger of their own homes, and certain citizens of New Orleans who, forgetful of their duty, had co-operated in forming an establishment of the Island of Barratria, near the mouth of the river Mississippi, for the purpose of a clandestine and lawless trade. The Government of the United States caused the establishment to be broken up and proceeded to prosecute the offenders by indictment, etc. For reasons set forth in the proclamation, President Madison granted to the offenders full pardon of all offences committed against the laws or touching the intercourse and commerce of the United States with foreign nations, and the President directs all such indictments and prosecutions for fines, penalties, forfeitures, etc., to be discontinued and released.

Fourth—The proclamation of President Lincoln, dated the 8th day of December, 1863, familiar to the public, granting to all persons, certain classes excepted, who had participated in the rebellion full pardon and restoration of all rights of property, except as to slaves and in property cases where the rights of third parties shall have intervened. In this proclamation Mr. Lincoln begins by citing the provision in the Constitution empowering the President to grant reprieve and pardon. The law of Congress declaring forfeiture, &c., and authorizing the President to issue proclamations of pardon and amnesty, with such exceptions as the Executive may deem proper, is then cited. Mr. Lincoln, referring to this act, adds: "Whereas, the Congressional declaration for limited and conditional pardons accords with the well established judicial exposition of the pardoning power, therefore," etc.

Fifth—The proclamation of President Lincoln, dated the 26th of March, 1864, defining cases in which persons are entitled to the benefits of his preceding proclamation.

Sixth—The proclamation of President Johnson, dated the 29th of May, 1865, similar to the Lincoln proclamation of December 8, 1863, granting pardon and amnesty, excepting for cases therein named.

Seventh—The proclamation of President Johnson dated September 7, 1867, extending full pardon to certain persons who were engaged in the rebellion. This proclamation extends pardon to the classes mentioned who were not pardoned by the preceding proclamations.

Eighth—The proclamation of President Johnson of July 4, 1868, granting a general pardon and amnesty to persons engaged in the late rebellion, with certain exceptions and reservations.

CALLED ON GEN. GRANT.

The Virginia Committee called this morning in a body, accompanied by other gentlemen from their State, to pay their respects to General Grant. The conversation turned mainly on the business of these gentlemen before Congress. The General, who showed a familiarity with the provisions of the Underwood Constitution, expressed himself in favor of speedy settlement on the general plan published in the papers. The interview was of some duration and highly satisfactory to the Committee. They subsequently called upon the President and Secretary Schofield. While not asking to have their disabilities removed by special laws, the Committee are exerting themselves to obtain a general relief of all persons in the State of Virginia, and especially to check further removal of State and County officers until Congress can act on the whole subject.

The Senate Committee on Judiciary has under consideration the subject of the restoration of Virginia to the Union, but has not taken formal action.

NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The bill introduced in the House by Mr. Windom to aid the construction of the North Pacific Railroad, proposes that the Government shall merely guarantee the interest on half of the bonds of the Company.

HARRISBURG.

Proceedings of the Legislature—Additional House Officers—Bills Introduced.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, January 18, 1869.

The House met this evening.

Mr. HERR moved the invitation to attend the dedication of the Mexican monument, May 26th, be accepted and a Committee of three appointed to make arrangements. A opted.

Mr. STRANG offered a resolution for the appointment of twenty-seven additional officers.

Messrs. Beans, Brown, of Clarion, Rogers and Webb opposed the resolution.

Mr. STRANG said the additional force was necessary. The average number of documents to be folded, &c., was forty-four thousand.

Mr. WILSON, Allegheny, said the newspapers were misinformed as to the cost of pasting and folding, which they represented at thirty, forty and fifty thousand dollars, whereas, under the present force, it was only seven thousand dollars, and would be only fifteen thousand dollars with every addition.

Mr. ROGERS, Philadelphia, raised the point that the law could not be repealed by a resolution of the House.

The SPEAKER decided that the Constitution gave each House the right to choose its own officers.

Mr. WEBB, of Bradford, opposed the resolution as not necessary. Half the officers down stairs were not on duty.

Mr. NELSON, of Wayne, moved to amend by authorizing the Clerk to reduce the number when possible.

Agreed to and the resolution passed.

Three thousand copies of the report of the Pennsylvania Commissioners at Springfield on the cattle disease were ordered to be printed.

Mr. CLARK, of Warren, presented a report from the Committee which attended the funeral of D. A. Finney.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. WILSON, of Allegheny: Incorporating the Allegheny Silver Mining Company: extending the time for payment of enrollment tax on the act incorporating the Youghiogheny Gas Coal Company to June first.

By Mr. KERR: Supplement for a State road from Tarentum.

By Mr. JACKSON: Extending the statute of limitation to fees of Sheriff and other officers in Armstrong county; supplement to the militia law of 1864.

By Mr. PORTER, of Cambria: Extending the act relative to compensation of Commissioners in Forest and Cambria counties.

By Mr. BEATTY: Fixing the number of tax collectors in Meadville and Titusville; authorizing school directors of Crawford county to borrow money.

By Mr. STRANAHAN: Protecting farmers of Erie county from frauds in the sale of patent rights.

By Mr. BROWN, of Huntington: Allowing parties to contract for the payment of interest.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Important Case Decided—Another Case Involving the Constitutionality of Civil Rights Bill.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

LOUISVILLE, January 18.—In the County Court an important case has been decided. The facts relating thereto are about as follows: The legislature by enactment authorized the Auditor to appoint agents to collect back taxes due the State since 1856, providing that the agent before entering upon the duties of his agency, should, in addition to the oath required by the law, swear that he had not aided the rebellion, and was opposed to the overthrow of the Union. After a full hearing Judge Hake decided that the oath was unconstitutional and therefore null and void.

Sometime during the fall the bodies of three negroes, Lucy Armstrong, Jack Foster, her son-in-law, and Sarah Foster, wife of Jack, were found lying dead in their house, in Lewis county, their heads having been split open with an axe. Richard Foster, who had also been attacked, was found at a house near by, having made his escape shortly before the attacking party left. John Blien and Geo. Kennard, who lived near the scene of the tragedy, were arrested to answer the crime and afterwards convicted in the United States Court here for murder. The counsel for defendants objected to the introduction of negro testimony, and also to the admission of the dying declaration of the negro, Richard Foster, who died two days after the commission of the act. Both of these objections were overruled, to which exceptions were entered. After the conviction of the parties, motions in arrest of judgment and for a new trial were overruled, to which rulings of the Court exceptions were also entered. The parties were sentenced by Judge Ballard, of the United States Court, to be hanged in this city on the 22d of the present month, next Friday. It is authoritively stated the execution will not take place on that day, as the prisoners, by their counsel, have perfected their appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, and have obtained a writ of error. This is an important case, involving the constitutionality or construction of the Civil Rights bill and other questions raised on the record. It is the only case before the Supreme Court purposely made to test the act.

Earthquake in New Brunswick.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTREAL, January 18.—The shock of an earthquake was felt at St. John, N. B., on Saturday morning, lasting about one minute, during which time the vibration was quite perceptible.

MY HEROINE—A TRUE STORY.

BY THE AUTHOR OF "JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN."

I knew a little maid—as sweet
As any seven years' child you'll meet
In mansion grand or village street,
However charming they may be;
She'll never know of this my verse
When I her simple tale rehearse—
A cottage girl, made baby nurse
Unto another baby.

Till then how constant she at school!
Her tiny hands of work how full!
And never careless, never dull,
As little scholars may be.
Her absence questioned, with cheek red
And gentle lifting of the head,
"Ma'am, I could not be spared," she said;
"I had to mind my baby."

Her baby, oft along the lane
She'd carry it with such sweet pain
On summer holidays—full fain
To let both work and play be.
But, at the school hour told to start,
She'd turn with sad, divided heart,
'Twixt scholar's wish and mother's part,
"I cannot leave my baby!"

One day at school came rumors dire—
"Lizzie has fallen in the fire!"
And off in haste I went to inquire,
With anxious fear o'erflowing:
For yesterafternoon at prayer
My little Lizzie's face did wear
The look—how comes it, whence or where?—
Of children who are—going.

And almost as if bound for flight
To say new prayers in angel's sight,
Poor Lizzie lay—so wan and white,
So sadly idle seeming;
Her active hands now helpless bound,
Her wild eyes wandering vaguely round,
As up she started at each sound,
Or slept, and moaned in dreaming.

Her mother gave the piteous tale:
"How that child's courage did not fail,
Or else poor baby"—she stopped, pale,
And shed tears without number;
Then told how at the fireside warm,
Lizzie, with baby on her arm,
Slipped—threw him from her—safe from harm,
Then fell—Here in her slumber.

Lizzie shrieked "Take him!" and uptossed
Her poor burnt hands, and seemed half lost,
Until a smile her features crossed
As sweet as angels' may be,
"Yes, ma'm."—she said in feeble tone,
"I'm ill, I know,"—she hushed a moan—
"But"—here her look a queen might own—
"But, ma'm, I saved my baby!

Smoked opera glasses will be in demand, and spectators are requested to take their seats before the performance begins.

THE MOUSTACHE MOVEMENT.

A correspondent of the Hearth and Home does not like the prevailing "moustache movement," as she calls it, and discourses as follows:

"What is this movement?" she writes. "I hardly know how to define it. It is a combination of moustache, big knuckles, pre-occupation of manner, and temporary imbecility. It is a spell that falls upon nearly every man whose upper lip or chin has escaped the razor for any length of time beyond a week. Sometimes it is a grappling movement (this when the spirit is willing, but the hairs are short,) sometimes twirling, sometimes pulling, sometimes stroking, sometimes parting, and all times ridiculous. If you enter a railroad car, you will see the movement at once. Even as you look in at the narrow door-way, nearly every manly elbow on nearly all the outer seats along the line will be giving unmistakable evidence that moustache or beard can never for an instant be forgotten by the man behind it. This is not an extravagant statement. I have been there to see. Once I counted nine gentlemen seated opposite me in a city horse car, who, one and all, were engaged in this modern movement. Poor fellows! They didn't look at all like the ancient Nervii, who were not allowed to remove their beards until they had killed their man. They looked rather as if to be able to kill time was the limit to their sanguinary aspirations. There they sat, all busily engaged in the different forms of twirling, grappling, pulling and combing. One iron-hearted looking youth was industriously striving to tuck away the ends of a Charles-the-first-looking affair between his resolute upper and lower lips. He had nearly succeded when the conductor came through to collect the fares. Oh! what a relief that was! The man, as he passed along, seemed to me like the angel of the entire nine. And then, sitting there in my quiet way, I began to wonder why this thing should be. In vain I invoked De Quincey's 'eclectic aptitude for discovering analogies.' The more I pondered the less satisfied I became, and the more my soul was filled with reasons why it should be. O men—husbands, brothers, fathers, sons, lovers! if you only knew how senseless a thing this movement is! If you for only a moment could see yourselves as we see you, you would never again fall victims to it. If your mustache annoys you, if it is in your way, if it occupies all your thoughts, if it persists in growing in one direction while your manly will requires it shall take another—if, in short, you can't possibly let it alone, be warned before it is too late. Shave it off! Though your very soul sicken at the thought, off with it. Though fair to see,

'It is fooling thee,' shave it off."

"P. S.—Now, dear editors of the Hearth and Home, what do you think? This very morning I read this letter to an unshaven friend of mine, with a view of ascertaining whether I would be doing right in sending it to you. He listened to me with patient interest, complacently stroking his long, flowing beard as I read. 'Well, what do you think about it?' I asked at last, glancing up.

"Well, my dear Mrs. Snap,' said he, looking blandly upon me, 'I've not seen much of this thing myself, and it strikes me that you have fired at rather an invisible target. Still I may be wrong, and if there is such an evil creeping in upon the community, why, the sooner it is exposed and ridiculed the better.'

"Comment is unnecessary,

"Yours sadly,

"SUSAN SNAP."

THE Gaulois borrows from the German press a singular list of the fees received by the hangman of Darmstadt for his services in the good old times:

For cooking a malefactor in boiling oil, 24 florins.

For quartering him alive, 15 florins 30 kreutzers.

For causing one to pass from this life to the next by the sword, 10 florins.

Then for breaking the body on the wheel, 5 florins.

For fastening his head to the end of a pole, 5 florins.

For cutting a man in four, 18 florins.

For the torture of squeezing, 5 florins.

For a person pilloried, 1 florin 89 hellers.

For whipping one with rods, 2 florins 30 hellers.

For branding with a hot iron a gallows upon the back, the forehead or the cheeks, 5 florins.

Cutting the tongue, or the nose and ears, 5 florins.

"Do you regret those times?" asks Alfred de Musset, at the commencement of Rolla. "No," confesses the Gaulois, "we don't regret them in the least."

—Governor Fairchild's message to the Wisconsin Legislature indicates that the State debt is $2,252,057. Receipts last year, $982,870; disbursements, $946,518. All the State institutions are flourishing.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, January 18, 1869.

The general markets continue rather dull, and devoid of any new or really important features worthy of special notice. We can report a fair local demand for most of the leading articles, but there is no shipping inquiry for anything, and there is an almost entire absence of a speculative feeling. Money matters continue tight, and considerable complaint is still made about the difficulty in making collections.

APPLE BUTTER—Dull: 70 to 80 cents.

APPLES—In fair demand, and steady with regular sales at $3,50 to $5,50 per bbl, as to quality.

BUTTER—Continues very dull, with a supply largely excess of the demand. We now quote good to prime Roll, at 33 to 35c.

BEANS—$3,50 to $3,75 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Dull at 4 to 4¼.

CRANBERRIES—Dull at $18 to $20.

CHEESE—Sales Hamburg at 16 to 17; and Goshen at 19 to 20c.

CARBON OIL—Is quoted firm in a jobbing way, at 29½ to 30, for Standard white.

DRIED FRUIT—Steady with a fair local demand but unchanged; Peaches at 12 to 13 for quarters, and 16 to 17 for halves. Apples, 10 to 11c.

DRESSED HOGS—Sales at 13 to 14c.

EGGS—In good supply and dull; may be quoted at 25 for pickeled, and 30c for fresh packed.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm with jobbing sales at 15 for Shoulders, and 19 to 19½ for Hams. Country Lard, 18 to 19 and prime City at 20. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 135⅝.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 18, 1869.

MONEY.

Reports that the Treasury was about to sell gold and bonds were again raised today, but without affecting any of the markets. The National Banks are receiving a large amount of currency daily, and are depositing their surplus with the Assistant Treasurer for three per cent. certificates. Eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars were thus deposited on Saturday and to day. The Treasury is thus likely to receive all the money it wants. The continued issue of these certificates, of which about sixteen millions are left on hand, must add to the ease in money and the general buoyancy in Wall street. Sherman's bill, which was reported to the Senate to-day, is regarded as likely to cause all the cotton business of the South to be done on a gold basis, and tend to advance the premium on gold. Money very easy today at 6@7 per cent. on call. Prime Discount 7@9 per cent., with more dispostion to take common paper. Sterling quiet at 9⅛@9¾ per cent. Gold opened at 136⅛, and closed at 135⅝. The clearances were $44,762,000.

BONDS AND STOCKS.

Governments strong, active and higher, with '62s and '67s as the principal feature. One lot of 600,000 of the latter was bought at afternoon call at 109, Butler's bill preventing banks banking in currency. Sixes weakened currency bonds late in the day, but otherwise market closed buoyant. Coupons of 1881, 112⅝@112⅝; do. '62, 113¾@113¾; do. '64, 109½@109⅝; do. '65, 110⅛@110¼; new do., 108¼@108⅝; do. '67, 108⅞@109; do. '68, 108⅞@109; Ten-Forties, 107¾@107⅞.

State Bonds irregular. Tennessees heavy, on reports of martial law in that State. Others firm with advance in some cases. Missouris 87½; New Tennessees 66¼@66½; North Carolinas 63¼@64; Virginias 59¼; Louisiana Levee Eights 84.

The railway market opened weak, particularly on the Western list, influenced by legislation pending in the Illinois Legislature. The lowest prices were made after the first regular boards, after which the market strengthened, and soon became active and excited, which feeling continued to the close of the day, when the market was strong, though somewhat unsettled. The largest dealings were in New York, Fort Wayne, Rock Island, Pittsburgh, Wabash and Old Southern. Closing prices were about the highest of the day. The Express says it is rumored that the McCullough party are in league with the Lane party, in the Cleveland & Pittsburgh matter, and that the recent appointment of receiver and the authorization of five millions of convertible bonds, are a part of the plan to induce short sales, whereby a sharp corner can be made.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather yesterday was cold and disagreeable with a snow storm prevailing during the greater part of the day; the indications are that it will continue cold and winterish for some days to come The river remains about stationary, with scant nine feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks.

The Sallie, from Louisville, is the only transient arrival we have to report. She had a very good trip, and, as usual, made the trip in good time.

No departures to record outside of the regular packets.

The Armadillo, Captain D. H. Swaney, is up for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Messenger, Captain Jesse Dean, is announced for New Orleans forthwith, as is also the Maggie Hays, Captain B. C. Martin, for St. Louis. These are both tip-top boats, and as such, may be commended to the public.

The Sallie brought up among other items of freight, 373 barrels of molasses and 97 hhds sugar.

The Bellevernon, Captain J. J. Darragh, follows the Maggie Hays to St. Louis.

Boats in Port—Maggie Hays, Messenger, Sallie, Kate Putnam, Armadillo, Bellevernen, Camelia, Wild Duck, Mollie Ebbert and Savanna.

The Camelia, Capt. Thomas Poe, will be the first boat out for Nashville.

Capt. Ebbert, will load his boat Mollie Ebbert for New Orleans, after the Messenger.

The Julia No. 2, Capt. Coulson, is the regular packet for Zanesville to-day, leaving at four P. M.

The following towboats, either left last night or will go to-day:

J. S. Neel, Louisville, six barges, 80,000 bushels.

Collier, Louisville, ten barges, 100,000 bushels.

Coal Valley, Cincinnati, seven barges, 70,000 bushels.

J. F. Dravo, Cincinnati, eight barges, 80,000 bushels.

The Bavard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving at noon.

1786. PROSPECTUS. 1869.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

This journal enters upon the 83d year of an existence which has never been more vigorous, or rewarded by the confidence of the people with a more substantial support, than now. Always a leading newspaper of the Commonwealth, the present generation of the people, the third since the establishment of the GAZETTE in the last century, still regard it, as did their fathers, with unabated respect, and with an entire reliance upon its faithful exposition of the soundest principles of political and social economy. The Proprietors need only point to the unblemished record of this journal in the past, to pledge to their fellow-citizens the same fidelity to the highest considerations of duty for the future.

Our facilities, for obtaining the latest and most reliable news, increase daily. All recognize our devotion to those political principles which have recently achieved a fresh and most signal vindication before the tribunal of the people. The effective services of this journal in promoting this triumph are acknowledged by an universal assent.

The GAZETTE enjoys to-day an admitted influence in a wider field than ever before. It is no longer regarded as a mere local journal, but has acquired an interest, as a journal of the nation, which commands attention to its utterances abroad as well as at home. Its managers will aim to maintain and increase this influence by every just means. It will continue to be, as in the past, the only political journal in Allegheny county which will be accepted by the people, at home or abroad, as the faithful, steady, ever-true exponent of those Republican principles which one Administration and four successive Congresses have loyally and successfully interpreted, and which the American people have just now once more emphatically approved.

The close of a momentous political struggle, and the victorious situation to which that has brought us, will find the GAZETTE acting in harmony with the new Administration of the Government in its most important departments. We shall have access to the most reliable sources for early, accurate and abundant information, on all matters transpiring at the National and State Capitals, and will make the collection of such intelligence a leading specialty. Our special and regular daily reports from Washington and Harrisburg, particularly during the approaching sessions, will be early, minute, uninterrupted, and from the very highest sources.

The DAILY GAZETTE, at only two-thirds the price charged by other journals, will give an equal amount of interesting matter, its eight broad pages making it the cheapest, as it is the one of the largest, daily journals of the Commonwealth.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE, with its days of publication so arranged as to suit all the mails from this city, will give the same matter in its forty-eight columns, to all its readers, at a lower price than any other journal in the State.

Its Editorial, News, Commercial, River, Financial, Religious, Agricultural, Scientific and Literary Departments will be conducted with the same earnest desire to command the public approbation, which has already been conspicuously manifested, and which confessedly regards the GAZETTE as the special organ and most reliable reporter for the leading interests of Western Pennsylvania.

The Market Reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are a standard authority in Commercial circles throughout this region. Its files are accepted as an authority for reference in the Courts of this county in important issues, to determine the rulings of prices at any given period in dispute.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 135⅝.

WE PRINT elsewhere a statement, probably correct, of the points substantially covered by the Alabama treaty, a copy of which is already before the Senate. This statement precisely accords with the public impressions of its nature, based upon the previous reports. All those modifications which Mr. SEWARD demanded, in the original protocol, have been conceded by England, and the treaty, as it now awaits ratification, is precisely what American interests have demanded. We secure, by its terms, everything we have asked for,—everything, indeed, that the most liberal criticism, of the most independent press, has insisted upon as essential. Who doubts, then, that it will secure the approval of our Government, sooner or later?

WHAT HAS been accomplished by the Paris Conference? Nothing, except to affix its approval to the substance of the Turkish ultimatum. This insisted absolutely upon the cessation of the Greek intervention, violating all international principles of neutrality, in the internal questions which concerned the Sultan and his Greek subjects alone. That ultimatum really covered the fundamental issue whether Turkey should continue to exist as an European power. Clear proofs were submitted to the Conference that the Greco-Russian policy looked directly to the dismemberment of the Turkish empire, in Europe, and the relegation of all her Greek possessions to the government at Athens. This was the real question which met the Conference at the threshold. Hesitating, it has postponed the Ottoman expulsion for yet another day, and for the present holds up the Sultan's hands. It is by no means clear that Greece will accept the decision. Were Russia not so ill-prepared for war, there would be no doubt as to the promptitude of her refusal.

WHY NOT?

A Kentucky Representative—Mr. GOLLADAY—writes from Washington, on the 13th inst., to the Louisville Journal thus:

"In my judgment this Congress will not legislate to enforce the Fourteenth Amendment. Our Radical friends thus think. Consequently Kentucky's Congressmen elect will not be reduced, as the constitutional law is inoperative until after legislation is had to enforce it. The XLIst Congress and next census, I think, will come before we have another election or are reduced in our delegation."

The Representative is frank—and he puts the responsibility exactly where it belongs. Nor do we think that he misconceives the prima facie title of his State, in the present situation, to insist upon their excessive representation in the XLIst Congress. Had he also stated that the failure of Congress, to provide for the next census to be taken this summer, will practically ensure to his State the same excess for the XLIId Congress also, he would have been borne out by the facts.

For the rest, why is it that Congress does not "legislate to enforce the XIVth amendment"? The country expects it, Kentucky and Maryland await it—and Congress does nothing yet.

OUR COLLEGES.

Other States, and other parts of our own State, are giving generously and laboring for the cause of collegiate education. Large sums of money have been given, and great progress has been made in elevating colleges and universities. Institutions have started into life fully equipped with large libraries and cabinets, extensive apparatus, magnificent buildings, and numerous well endowed chairs.

Western Pennsylvania has been remiss in her duty in this respect. Her material interests have received their full share of attention; her educational have been sadly neglected. Our wealthy people have been willing to partake of the bountiful provision furnished by the liberality of others in distant cities. Few, very few, have been the large donors who have been disposed to erect enduring educational monuments at home. Evidence of the truth of this statement may be seen in the fact that two of our oldest colleges, under the direction of one of our largest and most wealthy denominations, found it necessary three years ago, in order to preserve life, to unite their strength in one college, and still that one now languishes. A meeting of its Board of Trustees is to be held in our city, in a few days, to devise means to impart to it new life, to endow it, and if necessary, to change its location.

Among the plans proposed, or spoken of by individuals, is one to unite with the Western University of Pennsylvania, and thus to form one large University of the highest order, with all the appointments of an institution fitted to meet the wants of the times.

That such an institution is greatly needed here, that it will reflect great credit on our State, and benefit in a large degree, all our interests, material, intellectual, and moral, cannot, for a moment, be questioned. We have too many colleges in our country that are feeble, having merely a name to live, not at all coming up to the dignity of a college. More than twenty such are chartered in our State. Can then the friends of these two institutions unite all their energies and wealth in one large and noble university, which shall be to our State what the Michigan is to that State, and what Yale is to Connecticut. The arguments in favor of such a union are strong, the difficulties few, but we fear insuperable.

The University is prosperous, having very nearly 200 students, with classes in all of the five regular departments—its chairs, ten in number, all filled, its apparatus, cabinet and observatory well and newly furnished in all respects. It is located in the midst of a rapidly increasing and wealthy county, and where, too, it is approached by thirteen different railroads and railways.

More extensive grounds and more and larger buildings are demanded for its increasing number of students, and for the additional departments contemplated. The advantages of a city or its vicinity, as a location, are many and great, and need not here be discussed. The wants of Pittsburgh are such that a good University must and will be sustained here.

The Western University is in fact, and by its charter, undenominational, by which we mean that a majority of its Board of Trustees and Faculty belong to no one denomination. It cannot be controlled by any one denomination. Its Trustees and Faculty each represent some seven different denominations.

As undenominational, all its funds have been contributed to it.

The United College is a denominational college, as Meadville is, as Harvard is, as Brown is, or as Lewisburg is. As such its funds have been given to it. Can then its friends consent to divert its funds, and to join in building up a literary, scientific and professional institution free from all sectarian bias, in the best locality in or near our city? Most assuredly, it cannot be expected, that all the denominations, some of which have contributed largely to make the University what it is, shall relinquish their enlarged catholic views in favor of any one denomination.

To build up here an institution in literature, art, and science and its applications, in law and medicine, of the highest order, so endowed as to open its doors freely to the worthy poor student, is an object deserving of earnest effort, and much sacrifice of personal and denominational preferences.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

ADVENTURES IN THE APACHE COUNTRY. A Tour Through Arizona and Sonora, with Notes of the Silver Regions of Nevada. By J. Ross Browne. Illustrated by the Author. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Of all the American travelers in these modern days, Ross Browne is by far the most popular, because of the captivating style in which he narrates his adventures. The abandon manner and rollocking vein which sweeps through his works, gives unbounded pleasure to the reader. No one that delights in reading such works can fail to be instructed as well as amused by his graphic sketches. Highly colored as the descriptions are, his trip through Arizona and Sonora, and notes on the silver regions of Nevada, valuable and rare information is also imparted of these distant places. The capital illustrations add to the interest of the work, and serve the purpose of impressing the reader with the exciting characteristics of that country.

GREATER BRITAIN. A Record of Travel in English-Speaking Countries during 1866-7. By Charles Wentworth Dilke. Two volumes in one. With Maps and Illustrations. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

This substantial volume is one of the best books of the season. It is instructive as well as entertaining, and the candor of this Englishman, an element rarely to be found among his countrymen, enhances its value. The historical part is admirably relieved by the sketchy characters which abound of noted characters. Much valuable information has been gleaned that will be highly prized by thousands. Coupled with the frankness of the author, in regard to American affairs, are his sensible views on the live questions, which have caused the heart of our people to throb with such intensity during the late struggle, in which he says that "Republicanism represents Americanism, pure and true." Travelling over such an extensive domain, his observations are necessarily brief and not much elaborated. But this lack is compensated in the rich fund of anecdotes of persons and also in descriptions of places. Mr. Dilke visited this country in 1866, and passed to the West, visiting Utah, California, toching Mexican soil, visiting Pitcairn Island, New Zealand, Australia, Ceylon, the East Indies and Egypt, thus following England around the world, where there were English governed lands. This firm have issued two fine and a cheap edition, the latter at ninety cents.

FALLEN PRIDE; or the Mountain Girl's Love. By Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenney, Pittsburgh.

The public have long been familiar with the writings of this lady. This story is regarded by competent critics as being one of the best, if not the best Mrs. Southworth has ever written. It is one of absorbing interest, and illustrates very decidedly the popular tone of modern novel-writing. The work is cheap.

THE UPWARD PATH. By Caroline E. Kelly Davis. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by Booksellers generally.

Rarely have we enjoyed the perusal of a work of this character with so much pleasure as this one. It contains lessons of value to the young, that are commendable in the highest degree. It represents a helpless family, brought on by the intemperance of the father, but the noble wife braves the poverty and shame of her condition, and instils noble principles into her children. The children, especially the oldest boy, impressed with the situation, toiled late and early to aid the family, and to secure at the same time an education. His toils, and struggles, and final success in becoming a minister of the Gospel, and the final elevation of the family to comfortable circumstances, are graphically described. It is an excellent book for the Sunday School Library and for family reading.

DR. HOWELL'S FAMILY. By Mrs. H. B. Goodman, author of "Madge," etc. Published by Lee and Shepard, Boston. For sale by John W. Pittock, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

This story of American life represents persons to be found in many a fireside circle, and shows the drift of mind reared under the same class of circumstances, and yet resulting in widely different predilections. This fact crops out from society in every community. The story shows characteristics of a noble, benevolent, high-minded physician, in striking contrast to a worldly minded wife, with children illustrating each others traits. The author very truthfully illustrates the folly and bitter consequences of an aimless, selfish existence, and the wisdom of living for God and the happiness of the human family. The work is high toned, well written, and favorable to Christianity, and reflects credit on the author.

HILSBORO FARMS. By Sophia Dickinson Cobb. Published by Lee and Shepard, Boston. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

This is a pleasant love story, with characters natural and life-like. Rural life in New England is presented with remarkable fidelity. The author modestly assures readers that the book does not claim to have any special moral or mission. The scenes narrated of nature and life are picturesque and attractive. The central character, Lucy, is painted in glowing colors, and yet without exaggeration. Doubtless this work will please multitudes.

THE ENGLISH OF SHAKESPEARE. By Geo. L. Clark. Revised by W. J. Rolfe, Master of the High School, Cambridge, Mass. Published by Edward Gwin, and Crosby and Ainsworth, Boston.

This work on the English of Shakespeare, illustrating a Philogical Commentary on his Julius Cæsar, by Prof. Craik, and revised by Prof. Rolfe, is admirably adapted for students. The author has aimed to give an exposition in regard to both the language and style of Shakespeare, and to the English language generally. It does not, however, assume to give the whole subject of the "English of Shakespeare." It is merely an introduction to that subject. The book ought to be popular and widely used.

THE DISEASES OF SHEEP, WITH AN ESSAY ON CATTLE EPIDEMICS. By Henry Clok, late Veterinary Surgeon-in-Chief of the United States. Published by Claxton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, Philadelphia. For sale by Robert S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

The raising of Sheep occupies the attention of so many persons, that a work of such merit as this one cannot fail to be regarded with favor by those interested. Every phase bearing upon raising sheep is presented in a readable form. The character of the author is a sufficient guarantee that the work is a valuable one. Just now considerable attention is given to "Cattle Epidemics," which is ably discussed in an essay of several pages.

THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELLER, AND ADDITIONAL CHRISTMAS STORIES. By Charles Dickens, Published by Fields, Osgood & Co.: Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

We have repeatedly commended the "Charles Dickens" edition for its intrinsic merits. Its clear print, stout white paper, with new headlines by the author, binding in purple cloth and ornamented with a fac simile in gold of Mr. Dickens, are well-known. This volume, the fourteenth, completes this elegant and cheap edition. The characters are delineated by the great novelist in his inimitable style, and needs no commendations from us.

PARTICULAR PROVIDENCE, In Distinction from General, necessary to the fulfillment of the Purposes and Promises of God. By William R. Gordon, S. T. D., pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church on Seventh avenue, New York. Published by P. S. Wyncoop & Son, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

These lectures on Divine Providence were originally delivered by Dr. Gordon to his congregation, and by request they were published in book form. The lectures have been well received and have reached the third edition. The illustrations of a Particular Providence are happily presented in the eventful life of Joseph, at least the facts without intending, we presume, any philosophical arguments in regard to the doctrine. The questions of the "Will," and the chapter on "Arminianism" and "Calvinism," will, of course, cause a divided opinion relative to the author's views. The book is well printed, and will do good in establishing the faith of believers.

THE RING AND THE BOOK. By Robert Browning, M. A., Honorary Fellow of Balliol College, Oxford. In two vols. Published by Fields, Osford & Co., Boston, Mass. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

The admirers of Browning will find this poem a wonderful production. The marvelous skill with which the scanty material of the text has been woven so dexterously, and with such rare power, will attract the attention of critical minds. The story itself is not a pleasant one to contemplate, and yet lessons far reaching are brought out, and of great interest uncovered, and presented in a light fearfully grand. The story is wrought out so far as completed in form that give an analysis of facts in regard to the law of evidence, that will command the attention of thoughtful minds. The poem is founded upon the marriage of an old Count, Guido Franceshini, with Pompilior, a beautiful Roman damsel of seventeen, who afterward forsakes her husband and goes to Rome, accompanied by a young Canon, and is pursued and killed. Count Guido, and his associates in crime, were tried and executed. The poem, as stated, is incomplete, and needs the second volume to finish it. Guido and Guisepho are the principle actors in this volume, and the character of Pompilior's conduct is not yet fully developed as to her guilt or innocence. It is difficult to give the full drift of the unique production in a brief review. The poem is a study, and contains passages of rare beauty, and there is also a ruggedness in the construction of some portions that seem to destroy its symmetry, and yet, withal, there is harmony and symmetry through out.

ISAIAH. With Notes, Critical, Explanatory and Practical, designed for both pastors and people. By Henry Cowles, D.D. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Works of this character for the acquisition of a better knowledge of sacred Word are multiplying, indicating that aids and facilities for the study of the Bible are more generally sought after than formerly. Dr. Cowles has given us a work that will aid very materially in studying Isaiah, and in a form simple and plain, and sufficiently critical to give the real meaning of the text. It cannot fail to prove a valuable aid to ministers and Bible class teachers. It is also eminently practical. The Introduction is a valuable paper, and will serve to give the salient points of the great prophet's character. The arrangement of the work is, first a brief portion of the text is quoted, and then the explanatory notes follow. The views of the author on doctrinal points are liberal, and will not suit some; this is to be expected. The book is finely printed.

DOWN THE RIVER; or Buck Bradford and his tyrants. By Oliver Optic. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by R. S Davis, Pittsburg.

This volume is among the best of Mr. Adam's "Starry Flag Series," and is a capital book for young folks. Parents will approve the sound and healthful truths presented in the story. It is the personal narrative of Buck Bradford and his trials, and also gives an account of an eventful voyage down the Mississippi river, accompanied by a deformed sister. The illustrations render the story more attractive. W. A. Gildenfenny also has the book for sale.

ROSAMOND DAYTON. By Mrs. H. C. Gardner, author of "Rosedale," etc. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

For years we have been familiar with the writings of this lady, and always favorably impressed, from the fact that she has sought to teach lessons of pure morality of the highest type. The object in view in this simple narrative is to show that accountable beings have no right to live for themselves, but to bless society and accomplish good in the world. It represents the story of a girl who had been bereaved of her mother, and is aroused to action after sore trials, finds sympathy in a cousin, and finally the association ends in a happy result. The book is beautifully printed on tinted paper, and is a worthy publication for Sunday School libraries.

THE MIMIC STAGE. A series of Dramas, Comedies, Burlesques and Farces, for Public Exhibitions and Private Theatricals. By Geooge M. Baker, Author of "Amateur Dramas," "An Old Man's Prayer, etc. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

The design of this work is pretty fully set forth in the text of the title page. We believe the design is mainly for representations for fairs, temperance gatherings, &c., and no money required at the performances.

HAPPY THOUGHTS. By F. C. Bernard. Published by Roberts Brothers, Boston. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

This little book belongs to the "Handy-Volume Series," and is an amusing affair. It is brimful of "happy thoughts" and bon mots. Mr. Burnand's brochure is a capital companion for travel, and to beguile away leisure moments.

THE THEOLOGICAL ECLECTIC. Published by Moore, Wilstach & Baldwin, New York.

The Eclectic entered upon its Sixth volume with this month's issue, and will henceforth appear monthly. It is an able publication, and is a Repertory chiefly of foreign theological literature. It has a corps of editors representing the leading denominations and is worthy of general circulation.

MINER has sent us "Newton Forster", one of the cheap volumes of Maryatt's Popular Works, now in course of publication by D. Appleton & Co., New York, It is surprisingly low priced.

The American Year-Book for 1869 is the title of the initial volume of a proposed annual publication by O. D. CASE & Co., of Hartford, who have sent us a portion of its pages in advance. Since the "American Almanac" was discontinued in 1860, and the two years of the "National Almanac" in '63 and '64, the broad field of information thus to be annually harvested has been entirely unoccupied. These publishers enter upon it now, appreciating the public needs, understanding the perils of the work, and confident of their ability to supply successfully and permanently, a year-book and register which shall be indispensable for the intelligent public. The sheets before us fully sustain their promise to give to their work a broader and more valuable range than was covered by either of the annuals above spoken of. As a compendium of astronomical, historical, religious, political, financial and commercial information, as well relative to our National and State governments as to foreign countries, and carefully edited by competent writers, the completed volume of 800 pages will satisfy so nearly all the current requirements of public men or private citizens, as to command for the enterprise a well-merited success. It is to be issued in February, and travelling-agents will soon place copies within every man's reach.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Journal of Agriculture has found that eight bushels of salt and one of plaster will cause an acre of clay loam to produce more than an equally expensive application of tan-yard manure.

FRANCE.

ARIS, Jan. 18.—The Senate and Corps gislatif assembled to-day. The session s opened by the Emperor in person with peech from the throne. He said the x before them was a serious one, viz: to struct a government strong enough to ress the excesses while accepting all benefits of liberty. The laws making cessions to the press and granting right of public meeting had the effect of preserving public er, and the fact that the recent elections ulted in favor of the Government con- ed the justice and wisdom of these con- sions. The laws providing for military rganization had given strength and fidence to the nation, which was v ready to meet all events of the future. armament of the forces was perfect, arsenals were filled with supplies, reserves well drilled, and the rganization of the national guard roached completion. The fleet had n recreated, and the fortifications ll important points were in good con- on. The imperial wish was realized. nce was so placed as to vindicate her us in the destinies of the world. Peace been heretofore sought, not because of kness, but to sustain the honor of the e. The revolution in Spain had altered the good relations of nce with that country. The conference, ch had just commenced its sessions, which would extinguish a conflict ch had become imminent, was the last nd act, the importance of which all uld appreciate. The members of that y had all agreed on a principle calcula- to restore friendship between the Turks Greeks. If the firm hopes of success ch they entertained should be realized, hing would be left to trouble the eral harmony of the nations. The mbers would attend to the internal de- opment of the country mainly through gricultural interests, and might possi- seek to bring about a reduction in the lic charges. The Emperor referred to approaching re-election of the Corps islatif, congratulated the members on harmony which existed between the ne, the legislatnre and the people, and lared that he favored free and full dis- sion when it did not touch the constitu- . That instrument was above all de- , and he exalted the benefits which it conferred upon the country.

he Emperor concluded as follows: All ernments are liable to error. Fortune lines to smile on all enterprises. But the ntry knows no thought, no act of mine, ch has not been given to the glory of nce. It knows that I first sought to te a vigorous control of the administra- , and to enlarge the power of delibera- assemblies, to prove the true support he Government is in the independent riotism of the great bodies of the e. THE Worcester (Mass.) school of industrial science is likely soon to exchange its title for a simpler one, "The Technical School." The pupils have adopted a uniform cap of dark blue cloth, with a gilt badge in front—an arm holding a hammer—in the act of striking.

LEGAL TENDER NOTES of 1862, with the endorsement "exchangeable for U. S. six per cent. twenty year bonds," are still in circulation, and it has been asked whether the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution does not establish the inviolability of the engagement, notwithstanding Congress passed a subsequent act proclaiming that all such notes notes not presented at a certain very near day should, thereafter, forfeit this right of exchange. It is argued that as the Attorney General has asserted that the fourteenth amendment establishes the validity of the legal tenders in every respect, the same reasoning is applicable to the endorsement on the notes issued under the date of March 10, 1862.

THE Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald gives the following: "Surratt is now in South America, but will return here in a month. I learn from one of his friends that he has prepared a full and explicit statement of the conspiracy which resulted in the death of President Lincoln. In this he denies all knowledge of any assassination plot, but confesses freely that Booth and himself and others were in a plot to abduct Mr. Lincoln. He declares that assassination was never spoken of to him, and was not agreed on by Booth and Payne until the night it took place. He further insists on the entire innocence of his mother; maintains that every effort was made to keep the abduction plot from her knowledge, and says she was simply the victim of unfortunate circumstances and the machinations of the witness Weichman, whose evidence, it will be remembered, caused Mrs. Surratt's conviction. Surratt proposes to tell everything he knows—the good, bad and indifferent—and make oath to it. He feels, it is said, that it will be so impartial and straightforward that it will be believed."

A BOY OF SIXTEEN, named William H. Hageman, was the means of spoiling the little game of two bond stealers in New York, Wednesday morning. He was in the employ of Wm. H. Strong, a banker, and had received a tin box containing several thousand dollars' worth of bonds, to be conveyed to his employer's office. On reaching Mr. Strong's he placed the box on the counter, when two well dressed young men entered the place. One of them seized the box and ran into the street, followed by his accomplice. Hageman instantly sprang to the door, which the confederate of the thief endeavored to prevent being opened; but the boy effected an exit and started in pursuit. The messenger was rapidly gaining on the thief when his accomplice seized him by the arm and endeavored to detain him. Hageman, however, possessing considerable muscle, freed himself from the grasp of the villain and continued the pursuit. While Hageman was pursutng the thief, an officer came up and arrested the confederate who made no attempt to escape. The boy was fleet of foot, overhauled the thief, collared him, secured the stolen property and turned the robber over to the authorities at the station house, where he was recognized as an old offender.

"A LITTLE BILIOUS."

How often this is the response to the enquiry after a friend's health; as if to be bilious was a trifling matter, hardly worth thinking about. But let it be remembered that, as "tall oaks from little acorns grow," so formidable diseases arise from being "a little bilious."

Severe bilious attacks are more common in Spring, Summer and Autumn than in Winter, but the serious disorders of the liver which so often occur at those seasons, might be traced, in hundreds of instances, to Winter indulgences and their neglected consequences. More highly-seasoned food is eaten, more fiery drinks imbibed, in cold than in warm weather, and thus the biliousness is produced which, under a warmer temperature, culminates in remittent and intermittent fevers.

The very best medicine for persons who are either a little or a good deal bilious, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. No blue-pill or calomel is required in such cases. Those powerful mineral medicines cut two ways, like a double-edged sword. They act, it is true, upon the liver, but re-act most deleteriously on other parts of the system. They "kick" there, and cannot be got rid of. The Bitters contain vegetable agents of an anti-bilious tendency, that produce a specific and most genial effect upon the biliary organ, without entailing any evil consequences whatever. They are altogether wholesome, and act favorably and simultaneously upon the stomach, the liver, the bowels, the nervous system, and the brain.

THE SOUND OF THE LUNGS.

One of the most accurate ways of determining whether the lungs are in a healthy or diseased condition, is by means of listening to the respiration. To those experienced in this practice it becomes as plain an index to the state of the lungs, and is as well known to the operator as are the voices of his most intimate acquaintances. The belief that long standing coughs, and diseases of the lungs upon which they are dependent, are incurable, are fast becoming obsolete. One great advantage to be gained from this advance in medical knowledge is the earlier application of those who become afflicted with those diseases to some one competent to afford relief. The error which had taken hold of the public mind in regard to the curability of consumption, or rather non-curability, is fast becoming obliterated, and it is well that it should be so, not that persons should lose that salutary fear which would make them apply for a timely remedy, but that all might be induced to use remedies while there is any hope. It is the delay in these cases that fills us with apprehension and alarm, for if every one would make timely application of DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE in the beginning of a cold or cough, few cases would go so far as to become irremediable.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, January 18, 1869.

The gold market was ultimately strong and weak, opening at 136¼, and closing at 135⅝, with a larger speculative business. A powerful party is at work to depress the price and also bring down bonds for the purpose to divest capitalists from the stock market. The accumulation of coin in the banks will likewise have a tendency to depress the premium at least for the present month; also, it is generally conceded that higher quotations will ensue during February, when the custom dues have to be paid on warehouse importations.

In Governments a heavy business was done, and prices advanced about ¼ per cent. and ⅛ on old bonds. The entire business is speculative, and bona fide investers keep aloof at present quotations; the probability is that bonds can be bought at a decline of at least one per cent. before the week is over.

Stocks are firm and higher at the close with considerable excitement in New York Central, Fort Wayne, Pacific Mail and North Western. The Erie connections are dull, and were lower early in the day; at the close they sympathised with the general advance. Express shares are firm, and local securities at present quiet.

Money more in demand, but business only dragging along.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. —The subject of paying interests on deposits has from time to time been discussed through the columns of journals which make financial and commercial subjects specialities, and the conclusions generally arrived at have been that to pay interest on deposits is of doubtful propriety, dangerous alike to banks and depositors, and the history of the business fully warrants the conclusion. The New York Commercial List says:

"It is held that a large amount of money is kept out of circulation, and in many sections of the country a stringency in money is produced through the banks keeping control of all surplus currency by paying a small interest on sums deposited with them. Paying interest on deposits is without doubt fraught with mischief. It is a bonus offered to secure business, which has generally proved unprofitable in the long run to those banks which have practiced it. Some years ago, a stipulation was made that no member of the Clearing-house of this city should pay interest on the balance of any account. This agreement held good for some time, but the competition of accounts tempted the banks again to offer the bonus of interest on deposits, and the agreement fell through, the Park bank, we believe, being the first to break the compact, since which time it has become the rule rather than the exception, though a few of the most conservative banks still refuse to adopt that method of doing business. Nearly all bank managers admit that the system is not only unprofitable, but one of the main obstructions to the proper distribution of the currency throughout the country. But any law prohibiting the banks from paying interest on deposits should unquestionably extend to private bankers and trust companies, for, if these latter were left free to offer a bonus on balances, they could hardly fail to monopolize a large portion of the business, to the manifest detriment of the banks."

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, January 18, 1869.

CATTLE.

We have again to report a very dull market at these yards, and, as was the case last week, the supply was considerably in excess of the demand. The whole number on sale reached about eleven hundred head, and with a demand confined almost entirely to supplying the wants of the local trade, there being but very few outside buyers in attendance, prices for prime Cattle were barely sustained, while common and medium grades ruled a fraction lower. The quality of the Cattle on sale was not very good, as a general thing, the largest number consisting of rough stags, bulls, thin cows and heifers, and but for this fact good Cattle would also have ruled lower. As already intimated, there were but comparatively few good Cattle on sale, and, as a consequence, the decline was mainly in the commoner grades, though, as is always the case, a big supply, even of inferior stock, causes the better grades to move slowly, as butchers hesitate a good deal about buying prime Cattle, when it is in their power to get common and medium stock for two, or perhaps, three dollars per cwt. less. As will be seen by reference to report of sales, prices ranged from 4½ to 8½ for scalawags to choice smooth steers, and a few extra brought 9 to 9¼.

L. Rothchilds 37 head at 5,25 to 7,50; L. & J. Shamberg 50 head at 4 to 6,50; E. Katz 21 head at 3 to 5; M. Verner 36 head at 3,50 to 6,75; Haas & Kraus 50 head at 5 to 8; P. Hartman 35 head at 4 to 6,85; Myers & Needy 40 head at 5,50 to 6,50; Keefer & Zeigler 35 head at 5 to 7,25; Jas. McAllister 38 head at 5 to 8; Hedges & Taylor 100 head at 5 to 7,50; N. Carr 20 head at 5,50 to 6,50; Smith & Blue 26 at 4 to 6; Traurman & Lobman 93 head at 5,12 to 8,50; Marks & Bro. 39 head at 6,25 to 7,25; Hazlewood & Blackstock 100 head at 3,50 to 7; Greenwalt & Kahn 132 head at 4,75 to 8,00; Marks & Bro. 16 head extra at 9 to 9,25; J. Davis 18 head at 5 to 7,50; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 100 head at 4 to 6,50; Grier, Young & Co. 38 head at 3 to 5,50; Stakely & Bro. 33 head at 4 to 7.

SHEEP.

There was again a light supply of Sheep on sale to-day, only about fourteen head, and with a fair retail demand, the market was steady and prices fully sustained. We quote prime to extra fat mutton Sheep at 5½ to 6c per pound; fair to medium at 4 to 5, and scalawags at $1,50 to $2 per head. It was pretty hard on the Butler butchers again to-day, the supply was not big enough, and they could not buy Sheep at what they would realize for the pelts. Scalawags, which a few weeks since sold at from 50c to $1 per head, are now worth $1,50 to $2. We are reported the following sales:

McCaslin & McNeese 300 head at $2 to $4; Garwin & Co. 190 at $1,50 to $2,50; M. Flinner 70 at $1,75 to $4,75; P. Sheitemantle 131 at $1,50 to 4,75; Stakely & Bro. 50 at $2,87; J. R. Pringle 265 at $1 to 2,25; J. F. Neely 250 at $1,40; Jacob Rinn 40 at $5 to $5,50; C. H. Moulten 43, averaging $1,90; unknown, 46.

HOGS.

The Hog market continues firm, and prices are still maintained. Sales were made at these Yards to-day, in a retail way, at eleven to thirteen and a half cents per pound. These are tough, not to say exorbitant prices.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, January 18, 1868.

There seems to be a dead lock in the oil business, and this has been the case for two or three days. The market has reacted slightly, just enough to place it in such a condition, that it is almost impossible to do anything. The brokers report hard times, nothing for them to do, and as a consequence no chance to make a commission. Operators, who a few days since were willing to buy at almost any price, are now unwilling to take hold at a decline, being apprehensive that it is a little risky, and that for the present at least it is prudent to sail close to shore. We are cognizant of a prominent operator having made the remark the other day, that he would not buy if he was sure the price would go to a dollar, and while this assertion can be taken with considerable allowance, there is no doubt but what this feeling represents the sentiments of a large number of operators. They took advantage of the recent advance realizing a very handsome margin, and are now disposed to hold off in anticipation that prices will again get down, and then they will go in and place themselves in a position to take advantage of the next flurry, when it comes.

CRUDE.

The market was decidedly mixed today, and notwithstahding we made diligent inquiry, we were unable to find any one who could give an intelligent or accurate quotation. In order to cover the views of all, we give the range at 14 to 16c; some were unwilling to sell below the outside figure, while there were buyers who would not offer above 14c. It is probable, however, that 14½ to 15c comes a little closer to the spirit of the market, as we understand that there were offers to sell at 15c and offers to buy at 14½c. The only thing we have to report is a "put" of 1000 bbls, to be delivered six months from date, at 14c, and one hundred and fifty dollars.

REFINED

Was also very quiet and dull, though, compared with Saturday, prices have undergone no quotable change. The only sale reported was 500 bbls, January, at 32½c, and we heard of an offer to buy January and February together at 32½c. January to June quoted at 34c, and March to June at 34 to 34½c.

OIL SHIPPED EAST FROM DUQUESNE DEPOT.

Brooks, Ballentine & Co., 50 do tar to Libby & Clark, New York.

NEW YORK, January 18—Cattle Market.—Receipts for the week—6,215 beeves, 25,969 sheep and lambs, 7,742 hogs. Soon after our last report the market for Beef Cattle became firmer and prices advanced a trifle, ranging from $10 to $17,50 for common to extra steers; these prices prevailed during the latter part of the week when there was a fair degree of activity; to-day offerings were large, comprising 2,850 head, and with only a moderate demand; the market was heavy though prices generally were without quotable change; the quality of bulk offerings was common to medium extra at $17.00a17,50, prime $16,00a16,50, fair to good $15a16, ordinary $12a14,50, inferior $10a12. Sheep and Lambs; the market has undergone no material change. The receipts have only been moderate and the demand fair, while prices ruled quiet and steady, particularly for good stock. To-day, however, there were arrivals of about 4,500 head at Fortieth street, and 21 cars at Communipaw and Hudson City; prices ranged from 5⅝a8¼c, while inferior was quoted at 5a5¾. Swine—light arrivals, and the market dull, but firmer, and prices have addanced; there were offerings of abont 150 head at Fortieth street, which sold at 11¼c, and 3,481 head at Communipaw, prices current being 11¼a11¾c. Dressed Hogs have declined and are closing at 12½a13¼c for western.

NEW YORK, January 18.—Dry Goods.—Market less active, but nevertheless quite firm for cotton fabrics. The New York Mills Muslins are firmer, and now job at 27½c and 28c; the Wamsutta bring 25c. The Washington Cambrics are up to 11c, and high colors ½c higher. Heavy Brown Sheetings firm at 17c for best makes, and fine Sheetings at 14c. Prints steady at 13c for Amoskeag, Lancaster and Oriental; 13½c for Pacific, American and Richmond; 14c for Cocheco; 14½c for Merrimack D and Sprague's light fancies. Medium light styles of new Delaines have been put upon the market to-day at 20c, but lighter work will not be opened for a week or two. In Woolens the trade is inactive.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18—Cattle Market—Beef Cattle are in fair demand and extra State and western steers sell at 9½a10¼c; fair to good for 8a9c; common for 5a7c per pound. Sheep: 6,000 head sold at 5a7c according to grade. Hogs have advanced; 8,000 head sold at $15,50a16 per hundred.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

ACCURATE KNOWLEDGE ON THE FARM.

In a recent talk with Squire Oldschool, he advocated the stacking of hay and the winter feeding of cattle at the stack-yard—two heresies that we have always opposed. His idea was, that it saved labor in storing the hay, in foddering, and in spreading the manure. Had he ever tried any experiments to ascertain how much the hay wasted in value by exposure in the stack, how much more it took to support an animal unsheltered, and how much of the manure dropped around the yard was wasted? He confessed his ignorance on all these points, but thought his animals came out about as well in the spring as any of his neighbors', who put everything in the barn, and he was quite sure he saved one-half the labor. Now these, and a great many other disputed points in husbandry, can be definitely settled by the scales. Weigh four bullocks on the first of December, and feed them at the stack sixty days, weighing the hay they consume and the animals at the close of the trial. Put four others in a good barn, well ventilated, and give them the same daily allowance of hay, and water at the barn temperature, and weigh them at the close of the same period. The amount of flesh gained in the two cases would be a pretty good indication of the respective value of the two practices. If two pounds of hay in the barn made as much flesh as three pounds out of it, the advantage of shelter would be clearly indicated. If, on the other hand, the out-door feeding showed the better results, that would be a good reason for the continuance of the old, and, we may add, the still prevailing practice. Feed equal quantities of stack hay and barn-cured hay to the same animals, for the same periods, and ascertain the flesh made in the two cases, and you will have some reliable basis for an opinion of the respective values of hay cured by the two processes. The manure of the four animals fed at the stack might be confined to half an acre, and that made in the barn, from the other bullocks, using the same amount of fodder, might be spread upon another half acre of land, in equally good condition. If the sheltered manure showed crops twice as large, we should gain some definite knowledge of the waste of manures at the stack-yard. These experiments, of course, involve some painstaking and expense, but, if fairly made, they would determine something, and lead to better husbandry. They would prove a much better investment than more land, or more railroad stock. We want more accurate knowledge, ascertained from careful experiments. This kind of knowledge—the personal experience of practical men—we are most anxious to secure and spread before our readers. The doctrine is certainly true, and has been demonstrated again and again. That which convinces our substantial, old-school farmers, is what they can prove for themselves.—American Agriculturalist.

HINTS TO FRUIT GROWERS.

The Gardener's Monthly contains a query from one of its readers, as follows: "Is there any way to prevent apple blossoms being destroyed by early spring frosts?" to which the editor of the Monthly makes this reply:

"Plant late blooming varieties is the surest remedy. In this vicinity, Raule's Jannet often bears when others do not, because its late flowers escape."

The evil for which a remedy is asked is a very wide-spread one, and if there is any remedy, whoever discovers it will be a great benefactor to the fruit-growing public. We have had in our mind for many years a remedy, which, it seems to us, will prove efficacious. It was suggested by the following facts: Many years ago a very severe frost occurred on the night of June 4, killing the wheat, corn and fruit over a large extent of our Western country. On that night, in an orchard, a cow happened to be lying under a large apple tree. The fruit on that tree was saved, while on all the others in the orchard it was killed. The warmth from the cow's body and breath, rising into the tree and spreading among the leaves and branches, kept the temperature elevated above the freezing point. A hog lying under a pear tree saved the fruit on it. Now from these facts we draw this conclusion: The heat generated from this cow was not more than would be generated in open air by the burning of a few pounds of hay, or a small amount of grain. The only point is to so plan it that the heat shall be formed in the right quantity and distributed evenly during the night. A little experimenting showed that this could be best accomplished by placing under each tree at the time required burning kerosene lamps, boxed up so as to be safe from wind or accident. We give the hint, hoping that it will be tested thoroughly.

EXAMINE YOUR OUTHOUSES.

Every farmer should so arrange his work that he can spare time enough once a week to go all through his barns and outbuildings, and see if anything is out of order. The best time is at the beginning of the week, for then he has no unfinished jobs on hand that must be completed before the Sabbath. In one place he will find a door with a broken hinge; in another a sleigh standing on damp earth; and again he will find a tub with a hoop falling off, etc. "It will take much time?" Then take it—it will be the best spent hour, or half day, if necessary, that the owner spends.

PUMPS.

Pumps exposed to freezing are now usually made with contrivances to let off the water—one mode being to make a small hole in the pipe a few feet below the exposed part, so that the water will always run off before freezing. This hole may be stopped at other times of the year. Another way, which may be adopted for any pump, is to place a small nail or carpet tack under the leather of the fixed valve, which will cause it to leak and let off the water.

BARON BRISSE'S RECEIPTS.

Veal a la Marengo is one of the newest ideas in French cookery. The economist with little means, being unable to feast on the famous fricasee of chicken, on account of the ruinous terms of poultry at present, have substituted breast of veal, and—well, imagination is a fine thing!

Breast of Veal a la Marengo.—Cut neatly into three-inch squares the breast of veal; rinse the pieces in cold water, take them out and drain on a white cloth. Place on the fire a frying-pan with a piece of butter, (the chicken fricasee should be made with oil,) let the butter fry, then add the piece of veal, a few very thin slices of onion, a little minced ham, a little soup-stock, salt and a little pepper. Fry the whole together and when the veal and onions are cooked and of a fine color, add a little vinegar and serve. Those who wish a sauce may, when the pieces of veal are nearly cooked, dredge them with a little flour, fry a few moments longer, then add more soup, and serve after a short extra cooking.

Pumpkin Sauce.—Pare the pumpkin and cut it in large squares; set it to cook with very little water; stir and bruise it until it forms a paste, rather firm, and let the mass evaporate until it ceases to have a watery consistency. Melt some butter in a saucepan; turn the pumpkin into it; salt it a little and add plenty of sugar; let it simmer some time, and put it in a dish, cover with powdered sugar, and with a red-hot shovel make a crust over the surface. The pumpkin diminishing a great deal in cooking, considerable quantity is needed to make a presentable plate.

Stew of Roast Goose with Remoulade Sauce.—The cold pieces slightly trimmed with a knife, seasoned with salt and pepper, a little fat stirred in, sprinkled with bread crumbs, then boiled, are served with the following sauce: Chop parsley, young onions, head of garlic and mushrooms, if you have them; put all in a sauce-pan, with a lump of butter and a little flour; stir the whole over the fire and moisten slightly with soup-stock and a spoonful of olive oil. Let it boil up a few times, season with salt, pepper and grated nutmeg, and at the moment of serving a little mustard well mixed. As to the bones and other fragments, the best way is, after having cut them up, to make a gravy, fry in it a moment a little breast of pork cut in dice, then the pieces of goose, moisten with soup or water, season with salt, pepper and pot-herbs, add either pared potatoes or blanched turnips, and serve as soon as the vegetables are cooked. In all these preparations the fat of the goose is a perfect substitute for butter. —Petit Journal.

Very Nice Rice Pudding.—One teacupful of rice; one teacupful of raisins; one teacupful of sugar; two quarts of milk; use cinnamon or nutmeg to taste; bake two hours; stir occasionally while baking.

Bread Pudding.—Take two large slices of bread, and crumb it into two quarts of milk; let it stand until soaked so that it may be jammed up fine; add three eggs, one large coffee-cup of sugar, a small lump of butter, one nutmeg, and bake one hour.

Beef, Dried.—Take one pound of chipped beef, pour cold water over it in a frying pan, parboil it for five minutes, then drain the water from the beef, place it on the fire, add a large lump of butter and dredge flour until covered; then pour on a pint of rich milk, stirring with a spoon until it thickens; bring to the table hot.

Oysters, Fried.—Have a hot griddle, cover it with butter, have a dish of grated crackers, dip the oysters in the crackers one by one and place them singly on the griddle, fry until brown on both sides and serve while hot. Many prefer them cooked in this way to any other.

Flannels, to Wash Them.—Flannels that are washed clean, in warm suds and rinsed in cold water, shaken out well, and pulled into proper shape before hanging out to dry, will not shrink. When ironed, pull them easily again; this will be sufficient to have soft flannel.

How to Wash Black and White Mourning Goods.—Wash them in lukewarm suds, put them in cold, hard well-water, or alum-water, and let them remain twenty minutes, then wring as dry as possible, and dry quickly. They must not be dampened to iron more than half an hour before the time.

Camphor Cerate.—Take one and a half ounces of spermaceti, half an ounce of white wax, and scrape into a little earthen pot; add six drachms of powdered camphor, and pour on the whole four tablespoonsfuls of the best olive oil. Place in a small tin pan of boiling water; when dissolved, stir it well. In ten minutes pour off into jars, or let it stand in the one it was melted in. Rubbed into the lips at night it prevents all cracking; it also whitens the hands and keeps them smooth.

Cure for Chapped Hands.—Take three drachms of gum camphor, three drachms of white beeswax, three of spermaceti, and three tablespoons of olive oil. Melt in a cup upon the stove, slowly, stirring it carefully; and in a few minutes it will form a nice white ointment. If the hands are very bad, take an old pair of gloves, sew up all the rips, turn inside out, and rub all over with the ointment, then turn back and wear them every night. This makes the hands beautifully white and soft and prevents all chapping.

To Cure Sore Throat.—Beat the whites of two eggs with two spoonfuls of white sugar; grate in a little nutmeg, add half a pint of lukewarm water. Beat up well and take a wine glass of it every three hours.

To Cook Turnips.—Take a slice off the top end and cut off the tap root close, leaving the other part of the paring on. It boils soft, is short grained, and helps the flavor of the turnips.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Practical analysis, in one instance, showed that the last cup of milk from a cow's udder contains sixteen times as much cream as the first cup.

A cranberry patch in Centre Brook, Connecticut, produced last season, by actual measurement, one hundred and sixty barrels of fruit on an acre, or one barrel to each square rod, besides a large quantity which was not gathered and may be seen under the ice. The rental of this land is less than $2 per acre.

Many kinds of apples which are worthless at the East are succeeding well in Missouri.

Better sell stock now than be caught in early March with empty mows and a barnyard full of hungry cattle.

The total quantity of milk delivered in London by railway last year was 6,309,446 gallons, or above 120,000 gallons per week.

Suel Foster says a whitewash of lime and tobacco will protect trees from rabbits; and a small amount of earth is an effectual barricade against mice.

The cranberry differs from all other small fruits. It must have muck to make the vines grow, and these require sand, in order to develop fruit for a series of years.

In one of the girl's schools at Rochester, there is a teacher of gardening. The Iowa Agricultural College College takes young ladies, and there is to be a Professorship of Theory and practice of Butter-making.

The decline in the price of wool and the prevalence of food rot among sheep had caused a panic among Indiana and Ohio wool growers. Farmers are rapidly slaughtering their stocks. In Knox county, Ohio, 40,000 sheep have been killed within two months, and a proportionate reduction has occurred in other counties. This policy, of course, will diminish the yield of wool next spring.

EXCELLENT SECURITY.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

THIRTY YEAR, SIX PER CENT

GOLD BONDS

OF THE

Central Pacific Railroad Co.,

These Bonds are the duly authorized and accredited obligations of one of the most responsible Corporations of the American Continent, and are secured by an absolute first lien upon the valuable grants, franchises, railroad equipment, business, etc., of the best portion of the extending eastwardly from the navigable waters of the Pacific Coast to the lines now rapidly building from the Eastern States.

They bear Six per cent. interest per annum in gold, AND BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE EXPRESSLY MADE "PAYABLE IN UNITED STATES GOLD COIN."

The semi-annual Coupons are payable, July 1st and January 1st in New York City.

The purchaser is charged the accrued interest from the date of the last paid Coupon, at the CURRENCY RATE ONLY.

This issue of Bonds constitutes one of the LARGEST AND MOST POPULAR CORPORATE LOANS of the country, and therefore will be constantly dealt in.

The greater portion of the loan is now in the hands of steady investors; and it is probable that before many months, when the Road is completed and the Loan closed, THE BONDS WILL BE EAGERLY SOUGHT FOR AT THE HIGHEST RATES.

They are issued ONLY AS THE WORK PROGRESSES, and to the same extent only as the U. S. Subsidy Bonds granted by the Government to the Pacific Railroad Companies.

Nearly FIVE HUNDRED MILES of the road are now built, and the grading is well advanced on two hundred and fifty miles additional.

The THROUGH LINE ACROSS THE CONTINENT will be completed by the middle of next year, when the Overland travel will be very large.

The local business alone, upon the completed portion, is so heavy, and so advantageous, that the gross earnings average MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A MILLION IN GOLD PER MONTH, of which 35 per cent. only is required for operating expenses.

The net profit upon the Company's business on the completed portion, is about double the amount of annual interest liabilities to be assumed thereup, on, and will yield a SURPLUS OF NEARLY A MILLION IN GOLD after expenses and interest are paid—even if the through connection were not made.

The best lands, the richest mines, together with the largest settlement and nearest markets, lie along this portion of the Pacific Railroad, and the FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF BUSINESS thereon will be proportionably great.

From these considerations it is submitted that the

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD

secured by a First Mortgage upon so productive a property are among the most promising and reliable securities now offered. No better Bonds can be made.

A portion of the remainer of this Loan is now offered to investors.

At 103 Per Cent. and Accrued Interest, in Currency,

The Bonds are of $1,000 each.

☞ The Company reserve the right to advance the price at any time; but all orders actually in transitu at the time of any such advance will be filled at present price. At this time they pay more than 8 per cent. upon the investment, and have, from National and State laws, guarantees peculiar to themselves.

We receive all classes of Government Bonds at their full market rates, in exchange for the Central Pacific Railroad Bonds, thus enabling the holders to realize from 5 TO 10 PER CENT. PROFIT, and keep the principal of their investment equally secure.

Orders and inquiries will receive prompt attention. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, etc., giving a full account of the Organization, Progress, Business and Prospects of the Enterprise furnished on application. Bonds sent by return Express at our cost.

AMUSEMENTS.

☞ NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Lessee.....WM. HENDERSON,
Manager.....M. W. CANNING,

Engagement of the

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The mercury in the thermometer commenced falling yesterday, a sure sign of cold weather.

The Survey Committee of the City Councils will meet for the transaction of business to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Will Meet To-Night.—The Police Committee will meet this evening at Mayor Brush's house, on Wylie street, for organization.

Meeting of Street Committee.—The Street Committee will meet at their chamber on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, for organization.

Meet To-Night.—The Allegheny Councils will hold a stated meeting this evening, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of electing city officers for the ensuing year.

Committed.—Ruth Ann Murray was yesterday committed to jail on an information for surety of the place preferred against her by Sarah Mitchell before Alderman Lindsay.

G. A. R.—There will be a Convention of the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic on the Allegheny side of the river, held at the League Rooms on Leacock street, to-morrow evening.

The young people of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Sixth avenue, will hold a Prayer Meeting in the Sabbath School room at half past seven o'clock this evening. You are especially and cordially invited to be present.

Break Down.—A two horse wagon broke down on Federal street, near the corner of Ohio street, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, about three o'clock. The accident caused some irregularity in the running of the street cars for an hour or two.

Personal.—Our genial and worthy young friend, Mr. A. P. McClure, formerly of this city, paid us a visit yesterday. He represents the widely known Philadelphia dry goods house of Bush, Bunn & Co., and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his good health and prosperity.

A Good Suggestion.—A writer in the Chronicle suggests the passage of an ordinance, by the Councils of both cities, requiring all railroad trains to come to a stop before crossing any leading thoroughfare in the city limits, and also requiring all street cars to stop before crossing any steam railroad track.

Arm Broken.—Yesterday morning about eight o'clock a little son of Mayor Drum, aged about ten years, while riding a horse to water fell to the ground and broke his arm a few inches above the wrist. The accident occurred near the Mayor's residence, on Observatory Hill, in the rear of Allegheny. Dr. James Herron attended the injuries of the little sufferer.

Twenty-Second Ward, Pitttburgh.—The first official meeting of the Board of School Directors for Twenty-Second ward was organized on the 16th inst. An election was held for the different offices, with the following result: President, Springer Harbaugh; Secretary, E. K. Bruce; Collector and Treasurer, William Irwin; Member Delegated to the Central Board, Lewis J. Fleming.

Union Skating Park.—The Union Skating Park, Allegheny, is covered with fine ice, and is now open to the public. The managers have spared no pains or expense in perfecting arrangements for the accommodation of the public, and everything is now complete. For the lovers of the slippery art there is not a more fitting place for indulging in this healthy and exhilerating amusement.

Death of a Brave Officer.—Capt. David McClain, late of the 61st Penna. Volunteers, died on the 26th ultimo, of congestion of the brain at Austin, Texas, where he was stationed, belonging to the regular army. Efforts will be made to bring his his body home to Pittsburgh for interment. He was a brave young soldier, a good officer and a genial gentleman, whose death will be regretted in this city.

Velocipedes.—The Pittsburgh Gymnastic Association have secured several velocipedes of the latest and most approved patterns, and will have them on exhibition at the Gymnasium on Thursday evening. This novel method of locomotion is coming into general use in many of the eastern and western cities, and in time will, doubtless, be adopted here, and the Gymnasium will be an excellent place to learn to "navigate" the "craft."

Proposed New Steamer.—At a recent meeting of the Columbia Hook and Ladder Company of Allegheny, a Committee of twelve, with Mr. Joseph Christy as Chairman, was appointed to solicit subscriptions from the citizens for the purchase of a new steam fire engine. The object is one which certainly appeals strongly to the sympathy of every citizen and property holder, and we hope the Company will be successful in their efforts.

Services at the Academy.—We understand that the religious services at the Academy of Music, on Sunday evening, under the auspices of the American Unitarian Association, were well attended, and the audience thoroughly interested. Rev. Mr. Lovering delivered a discourse in the morning on "Liberal Christianity;" his subject in the evening was "Every Man has his Work." He will preach on Sunday evening next at the same place.

Safe Deposit Company.—At the meeting of the Board to elect officers, held yesterday, Wm. Phillips was elected President, Henry Lloyd Vice President and S. F. Von Bonnhorst Secretary and Treasurer. The organization is as follows: President, Wm. Phillips; Vice President, Henry Lloyd; Directors, William Rea, James I. Bennett, Byron H. Painter, George Black; Wm. M. Lyon, Joseph S. Morrow, C. G. Hussey; Secretary and Treasurer, S. F. VonBonnhorst.

Committed for a Further Hearing.—Yesterday morning, John Barnes, who is charged with attempting to rob the mail at the Union Depot, the circumstances of which we published, had a hearing before a United States Commissioner who committed him to jail for a further hearing. The prisoner is also suspected of stealing a couple of mail boxes from one of the trains on the Holidaysburgh Branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, a few days ago.

Produce Price Current.—The well known and responsible produce commission merchants, No. 257 Liberty street, publish their price current for this date on the fifth page of to-day's paper. This house is one of the oldest and most reliable of our business firms and monopolizes a vast share of the patronage directed towards the city, having the confidence of consignees and shippers of produce throughout the country. We speak knowingly when we commend them in high terms to our readers as eminently worthy of patronage.

Serious Fall.—Yesterday morning Mr. Mertz, jeweler, employed at H. Richardson & Co's establishment corner Fifth avenue and Market streets, while walking along the pavement in front of the store, slipped and fell upon the icy pavement, fracturing the cap of the knee and sustaining other severe injuries. He was taken to the house of a friend on Penn street, where medical assistance was tendered him. He resides at Glendale station on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, but owing to the serious nature of his injuries he will in all probability be unable to be removed thither for some time.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

The case of the North American Oil and Mining Company vs. the Ardesco Oil Company, previously reported, was concluded yesterday morning, the jury finding for the plaintiff in the sum of $9,202 61.

Comley & Fiskett vs. Eichner Brothers. After a jury had been empannelled the defendant confessed judgment in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $192.70.

Robert Finney, trustee, vs. Alexander Bradley, garnishee of King & Pennock and Joseph Pennock. This was an execution attachment to recover on a judgment from property alleged to have been assigned by Isaac Pennock when in an embarrassed financial condition. On trial.

Following is the trial list for to-day:

143. Ross vs. Hunter.
49. Cochran Heirs vs. Auld.
144. Ross vs. Ehman & Co.

109. Smith vs. Wilson.
117. Vanderhosen vs. Jones.
119. Chestnut Hill Iron Ore Co. vs. Painter & Sons.
137. Pierce vs. Sales.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

John Blakely, an Allegheny policeman, was arraigned upon a charge of aggravated assault and battery. Mr. E. McGinn was the prosecutor. The offense was alleged to have been committed while the officer was arresting the prosecutor. A verdict of guilty of assault and battery was returned. The defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

Ernest Dingle, a lad aged about thirteen years, was arraigned upon a charge of aggravated assault and battery upon Joseph Ghout, aged ten years. It was alleged that the defendant struck the lad Ghout on the head with a brick, fracturing his skull. The jury found Dingle guilty of simple assault and battery, and he was fined twenty dollars and costs.

Mary Johnson was placed on trial upon an indictment charging her with keeping a common bawdy house on Wide alley, near Fulton street. The case was not concluded at the time of adjournment.

TRIAL LIST FOR TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1869.

Com. vs. Robert Campbell, et al.
Com. vs. Ann Campbell.
Com. vs. Solomon R. Spradling.
Com. vs. Francis Hahn and Gottlieb Wooster.
Com. vs. Joseph McCann.
Com. vs. Ellen Williams.
Com. vs. Nicholas J. Bennett, three cases.
Com. vs. John Kennedy.
Com. vs. W. J. Simpson and Wm. Porter.
Com. vs. David Lyle.

The Weather.

The record of the weather from the 14th of December to the 12th of January: Nineteen variable and cloudy, nine rain, three snow, and ten sunshine days, and fourteen freezing and white frost mornings; average daily thermometer 45⅗ degrees; average of the river 6½ feet; 3 30-100 inches of water fell; coldest day, 24th of December, thermometer 16⅗ degrees; warmest day, 9th of January, thermometer 52 degrees.

The predictions: January 12th did not come correct in regard to the amount of cold, but in the finale nearer to the prediction, but from different causes than expected. There was a freeze and white frost on Saturday morning; within forty-eight hours there was to be snow or rain, or rain or snow yesterday; it began to rain last night, it has turned into snow, and has not yet ceased.

Indications from January 12th to February 11th: Eighteen rainy or snow, twenty-four variable and cloudy, and three sunshine days. It will be a dark, stormy month, not severely, but moderately cold, nor so warm as the last half of the last lunar month. G. A.

PITTSBURGH, January 18, 1869.

Improvement in Railroad Cars.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are about introducing an improvement in passenger coaches, which, if it proves successful, will add materially to the comfort, convenience and safety of railroad travel.

The improvement is in the arrangement for heating the cars, and consists of stoves or furnaces, two to a car, hung under the floor on either side, from which pipes or heaters extend along the floor at the sides of the car, covered with registers through which the heated air passes.

The advantage claimed for this system is that the heat coming in at the bottom makes the car more comfortable, and that the temperature can be more easily regulated, and that the furnaces being attached to the outside of the car, in case of accident, they are readily detached and conflagration is prevented. Twenty-four of these cars are in course of construction at the Company's shops in Altoona, and are intended for through trains between this city and Philadelphia. The first of the number having been completed was run from Altoona to this city on a trial trip on Saturday, and is said to have been very satisfactory.

An Intruder.

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock a lady occupying a residence on Western, near Irwin, avenue, having occasion to go up stairs was much startled to find a young man secreted behind one of the bed room doors. She endeavored to seize him, but the fellow pushed past and started down stairs. The screams of the lady attracted the attention of the other females of the house, one of whom encountered him on the stairs, and seizing hold of him retained her grasp until two gentlemen from a store in the vicinity came into the house and secured the intruder. Officers Nixon and Kennedy were then summoned from the Mayor's office and conveyed the fellow to lock up. Last evening he gave his name as Hood, and stated that he had no recollection of the affair or of his arrest, being intoxicated at the time. The lady refused to enter prosecution against him and after a severe reprimand from the Mayor he was allowed to depart.

Allegheny Council Caucus Nominations.

The members of the new Councils of Allegheny City met last night in caucus for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the municipal offices at their disposal. There was a full attendance, and the usual amount of card distributing was indulged in by aspiring candidates. The nominations made were as follows:

Controller—R. B. Francis.
Treasurer—D. Macferron.
City Engineer—Charles Davis.
Street Commissioner—Thos. Megraw.
Superintendent of Water Works—Wm. Paul, Jr.
Clerk of Markets—Duncan Dallas.
Weighmaster at Diamond Scales—Geo. McNulty.
Weighmaster at Second Ward Scales—James Hunter.
Wharfmaster, Eastern District—Geo. B. Geisenger.
Wharfmaster, Western District—S. R. Davis.
Chief Engineer of Fire Department—Jas. E. Crow.
Salt Inspector and Measurer of Wood and Bark—Wm. Brown.
Clerk to Committees—J. R. Oxley.
City Solicitor—J. C. McCombs.
Assessor of City Taxes—R. R. Ray.
Assessor of Water Rents—David Cornelius.

Board Measurers—First ward, Robert White; Second ward, William Murdock; Third ward, M. Simonds; Fourth ward, A. Davidson; Fifth ward, R. M. Rurk; Sixth ward, Thomas Gilson; Seventh ward, Martin Levy; Eighth ward, Wm. Oakley.

Official Papers in the English Language—GAZETTE and Dispatch.

Official Paper in the German Language—Freheits Friend.

Janitor of City Hall—Mr. Marshall.

The contest for the English city printing was between the GAZETTE, Dispatch, Commercial, Evening Mail and Allegheny Press. The GAZETTE was nominated on the first ballot, and the fight for the remaining choice was between the Dispatch and Commercial, with the result stated above. The Volksblatt and Freiheit's Friend contested for the German printing, the award being made in favor of the latter. The nominations afford very general satisfaction, and the election of the candidates selected will take place to-night. It is but due our friends on the other side of the river that we return our thanks for the generous continuance of municipal patronage, and for the large measure of confidence reposed in the GAZETTE, as shown by the handsome vote received on the first ballot. We will endeavor to discharge the duties of city printer to the best of our ability during the year, and trust to merit the favors of our friends in the future as we have endeavored to deserve them in the past.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. and Mrs. Leffingwell made their first appearance on the stage in this city at the Opera House last evening, and were greeted by a large and fashionable audience. Byron's burlesque of "Cindrella" was presented with the Leffingwell as Clorinda, and Mrs. M. W. Leffingwell as Dundine, and no actors ever made a more decided success than did the Leffingwell last night. The entertainment concluded with "Too much for good Nature," which was highly appreciated by the audience.

THEATRE.—The Gregory combination troupe commenced their third week at the Theater last night, and as usual the house was crowded to its utmost capacity. Little Bennie Gregory, the charming young commedienne, of course receives a full proportion of the applause. The Can Can by Willie, Gertrude and Leon Cavender was good and highly appreciated by the audience. This is positively the last week of the Gregory's, and the amusement going public should improve the opportunity of seeing them.

MUSEUM.—Major Burnell's Museum continues to be the greatest attraction in the city for ladies and children particularly. It is open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily.

ORPHANS' FAIR.—The interest manifested in the Orphans' Fair, in progress in the basement of the Cathedral, appears to be on the increase. The attendance is fully as large as when it first opened. The new Cathedral band is in attendance every night and enlivens the occasion with excellent music.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—A large and select audience assembled at the Academy of Music last night to hear Mr. John B. Gough deliver his lecture on "Habit." The lecture is not his best, but was well delivered and was fully satisfactory to his hearers. The Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association have been eminently successful, and peculiarly fortunate in the selection of lecturers this season, and we have no doubt the remaining lectures of the course will be as well received as those which have been delivered.

Fatal Result.

Coroner Clawson yesterday held an inquest on the remains of Mary Burke, the little girl who fell over the hill above the Sligo Mill, a distance of thirty feet, on Friday evening last, striking her head and receiving injuries which resulted in her death the following evening. She remained insensible from the time of receiving the injuries until her death. Dr. J. H. Roberts, the attending physician, testified that death was caused by congestion of the brain. Mary Joice, who was with the deceased at the time of the accident, stated that she saw a lump of coal fall upon Mary Burke's head, immediately after which she fell over the hill. The deceased was about thirteen years of age. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of accidental death.

Charity Fair.

The ladies of Mansfield will hold a Charity Fair during the present week in Mansfield. Among the prizes to be contested for is a gold headed cane, to be awarded to the most popular gentleman of Steubenville, Pittsburgh and Mansfield, the contestants being Messrs. John D. McGowan, of the Panhandle Road, Robert Grier, Cashier National Trust Company, and Mansfield Brown, of Mansfield. Here is a field for competition—Steubenville and the Panhandle, Pittsburgh and the Trust Company, and Mansfield and its popular home competitor. May the best man win, but where so much good material is offered it is hard to say who is entitled to the cane.

The Bill-Posting Business.

The bill posting business seems to be environed with many difficulties, at least if the career of one of its most prominent followers, James Thackeray, can be taken as any criterion. Yesterday Mr. M. W. Canning, proprietor of the Opera House, made information before Alderman McMasters against James for malicious mischief. Mr. Canning states for some time past the bills of the Opera House have been torn down in certain localities, and from information received he believes James to be the offender. A warrant for his arrest was issued.

Tested by Time.—For Throat Diseases, Colds, and Coughs, "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches have brought out many worthless imitations. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

The place to get White Lime, Calcined Plaster, Hydraulic Cement, is at Ecker & Caskey's, 167 First street.

Calisaya Bark.—It is said that Messrs. Drake & Co., (proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS,) are the largest importers of Calisaya Bark in the country, and that, with the exception of an occasional sale, all they import is used in the compounding of their celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS—to which they undoubtedly are indebted for their wonderful health-restoring properties. As a Tonic and Appetizer they are not surpassed, and we cheerfully recommend them. All first-class Druggists keep them for sale.

The Treaty on the Alabama Claims.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, January 18.—The Tribune says the articles of treaty on the Alabama claims, eight in number, are substantially as follows:

Article 1—The two Governments agree to the settlement of claims and differences which have risen since the Convention of 1853.

Article 2 provides for a commission of four persons, each Government being entitled to two representatives, this commission to agree upon a plan of settlement.

Article 3 provides that a majority of the commission shall decide a question.

Article 4 provides for cases of disagreement on the commission. In such an event the two governments shall choose an umpire. The President of the United States shall act for the United States, but the umpire selected shall not be qualified unless confirmed by the Senate.

Article 5 provides that in the event of the refusal of the umpire to decide, the question shall be settled by lot in the presence of the Commission.

Article 6 excludes from the jurisdiction of the Commission all cases arising from claims which have been adjudicated by Courts of Admiralty.

Article 7 provides that claimants shall have first proved that they are British subjects, that they preserved strict neutrality during the war, and did not aid the South.

Article 8 provides that the sessions of the Commission be held in Washington.

Indiana United States Senatorship.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

INDIANAPOLIS, January 18.—There is a very determined opposition to the election of Lieut. Governor Cumback, nominee of the Republican caucus for United States Senator, by a part of the Republican members of the Legislature. The Senate to-day passed resolutions censuring Cumback for the Cumback-Baker correspondence previous to the nominations for the State ticket last year eleven Republicans voting in the affirmative. Only a part of those, however, will bolt the nomination in the election to-morrow. The Democrats to-night, in caucus, voted to give Senator Hendricks the complimentary vote.

Georgia Legislature.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ATLANTA, January 18.—In the House a resolution to appoint a joint committee to consider the question of reconstruction, with a view to its amicable settlement, was defeated. The Senate resolutions, calling on the Governor for the facts sustaining the statement that no adequate protection was furnished for life and property, was referred to a special committee.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 18.—At a meeting of the Board of Health to-day, it was stated that fifteen cases of typhus fever have occurred in East Thirteenth street, between 1st avenue and avenue A, including six deaths. The houses have been disinfected. Seven cases of small pox occurred in one house on West 31st street, including two deaths. These premises have also been disinfected. The carcasses of dead horses, which have been lying in Greggs' stable on 23d street since the fire of some weeks ago, are at last being removed.

Two workmen, named John Shea and Amos Carter, were buried alive this evening in an excavation in Dominick street, and although dug out quickly the latter sustained fatal injuries. Shea was slightly bruised.

In the Court of Common Pleas to-day Judge Brady modified his injunction by striking out the words "restraining the Merchants Union Express Company from doing business." Subsequently Judge Sutherland issued an order removing the case to the Supreme Court and staying proceedings in the Common Pleas.

Wm. G. Fargo, President of the American Merchants Union Company, publishes a card stating the case of McVicker against that company to be malicious and the contents of the complaint in regard to the solvency of the company to be libellous. He says proceedings for libel will be immediately commenced against the authors of the statements. Mr. Fargo says the actual cash assets of the new company are over five millions of dollars, without any indebtedness, and the business is large and profitable. He also says these proceedings have been instituted for speculative purposes by parties hostile to the new company, and cautions stockholders against being misled by their devices.

The western express train on the New Jersey Central Railroad this morning ran off the track, near Bound Brook, from a misplaced switch, while running thirty miles an hour. It is stated that no persons were injured.

The steamer City of Antwerp, from Liverpool, arrived to-day.

A Sunday school which had been held in Pike's Opera House building, one of the halls of which had been rented for three years for its use, was locked out yesterday by James Fisk, Jr.

The deaths in this city for the year 1868 were 25,459, and in Brooolyn 9,015. One-fourth to one-half the mortality was among children under one year old, and in some localities eighty per cent. of the deaths were infants.
